

World Peace is a Choice of Superpowers

Outline

1. Introduction:

Thesis Statement: Peace in world has become a utopian dream because of vested interests of few states. When dispute settlements, ceasefire decisions and resolutions are kept in hands of Superpowers then establishing and maintaining peace becomes a choice of superpowers.

2. Linking World Peace and Choice of Superpowers

3. Scenarios of World Peace and Role of Superpowers

a. The power of Veto of five Superpowers:

Decides the peace of other nations

b. World peace keeping missions: Controlled by global hegemones

c. Issuing of loans and aids to uade the economic crisis and unrest of states: Under control of powerful states

d. National currencies adjusted and readjusted: According to set standard of dollar decide peace and unrest in states

e. Lack of Implementation of nuclear and arms control reduction ^{treaties} among Super powers: Threatening peace of other nations

f. Ineffectiveness of International Institutions governed by Superpowers: Escalating unrest globally

DATE: ___/___/___

g. Lack of interest of Superpowers in settling climatic risks, reducing their carbon emissions: Is putting at stake the peace of poor nations

h. Debt trap diplomacies and increase in the percentage of economic dependence on Superpowers: Indicator of world peace a choice of superpower

i. The use of nuclear power in WWI: A choice of Superpower into destabilising the peace

j. Failure of League of Nations: Happening of World War Two is owing to lack of interest of superpower in maintaining peace

k. Superpowers interventions in internal and domestic affairs of nation: Put peace at stake

4. Case studies: Justifying World peace is a choice of Superpowers

a. Unfair distribution of India and Pakistan: An unresolved 'Kashmir issue', a bone of contention is owing to wrong decision of Britishers

b. Weakening economy of states by increasing lending of loans: Escalates the economic crisis and domestic unrest in economically defaulted country 'Sri Lanka'.

c. Gaza's humanitarian truce and decision of ceasefire: Is dependent upon the decisions of Superpowers

5. World Peace is not Always a choice of Superpower

- a. Rise of China: Despite the pressure from the then Superpower to bridging the gaps and becoming superpower challenge the choice of Superpower
- b. Advancement in India and emergence of as top economies: Despite conflict with Superpower china also nullify the notion of choice of Superpower

6. Conclusion

ESSAY

The desperate eyes filled with tears^{and} blood but a little hope are looking for help from world Superpowers to help them by announcing a humanitarian pause, ceasefire or anything which enable^{them} to at least breath for a while.

Bloodsheds, down trodden societies, violation of human rights, bleeding gaza, killing of innocent souls, ceasefire, resolutions are all dependent on the decisions of the Superpowers. Who operate and maximize their own vested interests, national interests and to remain as global hegemonic powers forever. Scenerio of world peace and role of superpowers indicates world peace is a choice of superpowers. Be it a need of superpower immediate decisions in establishing a national peace or a misdirecting use of veto power despite undermining the peace of the states.

World peace keepings missions are under influence of few powers. Lending of loans to help countries lessen their economic crisis and maintaining peace is in hands of economic powers. Lack of reduction of arms control and ineffectiveness of International Institutions is under control of powerful nations that are threatening peace of unpowerful. Mounting emission of carbon dioxide due to activities of superpowers are threatening the peace of countries who became the victim of climate catasrophe. Further, the debt trap diplomacies weaken the states internally is because of superpowers who kept on lending despite knowing nations failure of returning back leads to economic crisis and unrest in nations. The use of nuclear power in WWII is a choice of superpower in destabilising the peace. Failure of League of Nations and happening of World War Two is owing to lack of interest in maintaining peace. Moreover, superpowers interventions in internal and domestic affairs of nations put peace at stake. There are case studies justifying world peace is a choice of a superpower includes the unfair distribution of boundary line between India and Pakistan and unresolved Kashmir issue is a bone of contention owing to wrong decision of Britishers. Weakening economy of states by increasing lending of loans escalates the economic crisis and domestic unrest in economically defaulted country like 'Sri Lanka'. Gaza's humanitarian truce and decision of ceasefire is dependent upon the decisions of superpowers. Conversely, world peace is not always a choice of superpower examples include the rise of China despite pressure from the superpower to bridging the gaps and becoming superpower. Another case study of advancement in India and its emergence as top economy despite

DATE: ___/___/___

Conflict with superpower china also nullify the notion of choice of Superpower in maintaining peace in any state.

Peace in world has become a utopian dream because of vested interests of few states. When dispute resolutions, ceasefire decisions are kept in hands of Superpowers then establishing and maintaining peace becomes a choice of Superpowers.