

English (Precis & Composition)

Q2. Make a précis and suggest a suitable title.
Title: "Leadership Paradox: Youthful vigor Versus Seasoned Judgment in Military General."
One of the most essential quality in a Military General is of Courage. both physical and moral. Drawing examples from historical figures like Voltaire, Marlborough, Joffre, Napoleon and others, their stories count the strength and, courage ~~and~~ and great spirit, which can compensate for physical frailty. Furthermore, there is no optimal age for military prowess recognizing the advantages of both youth's vigour and experience's judgment. As war men like Alexander, Napoleon, Wellington, Wolfe ~~are~~ are perfect example for youth's determination and agility. While at the same time history marks the riper prowess and serious soldiering of old men. in their 60s and 50s.

while difficult to draw line between youth's agility and Riper strategic head of old man, it is confirmed by to some extent that Good young General complies prowess to beat old one. And this strategic confinement is obvious through previous ammenda<sup>ment</sup> to entitle a general in young age.

Q3-

(i) In context to passage given, "we complicate our lives" in following given ways-

First of all <sup>by</sup> being an object for "technological revolution", we basically step back from handwork and never let ourselves assemble mess around.

Secondly, through misinterpretation of ill-constructed messages, this generation is much focused on running to achieve and gain more in material than looking for what is more accessible and better for self.

(ii) He pointed towards making communication more simple and clear by not extending phrases, so that it can't lead to any misinterpretation. Furthermore, by making oneself ready for growth and unwanted struggle and learn to understand the importance of giving vent to bottled up feelings.

(iii)

(iv) As writer opined Victorians ~~are~~ as much wiser generation than present, he ~~meant~~ is negating to what sociologists and psychologist ~~norm~~ says. According to writer this generation is focused on preparing for examinations more than learning by heart and its implications.

(v) To much greater extent writer obliges us to exercise reasoning and measure the choices. Humans are only creatures gifted with sanity and intellect so they should make fuller use of it.

Q4 (b) while standing in line, I could hear the thunder

(d) I have been preparing for CSS exam since last October

(e) If only I could go back in time!

(f) My mother forbade me to smoke.

(g) Many children dream about becoming famous one day.

Q5- a-

Robert Whiting an elderly US gentleman of 83, arrived in Paris by plane at French customs.

He took a few minutes to locate his passport in his carry on. You have been to France before, Monsieur the customs official asked sarcastically. Mr Whiting admitted that he had been to France previously then you should know enough to have your passport ready. American said "the last time I was here I didn't have to show it impossible. Americans always have to show their passports on arrival. in France, sneered the customs officers. The American senior gave the Frenchman a long hard look, then he quietly explained <sup>well</sup> ~~at present~~. When I came ashore at Omaha Beach, at 4:40 am, on D-Day in 1944, to help liberate your country I couldn't find a single Frenchman to show a passport to ... You could have heard a pin drop.

Q5-b.

(1) onto

(2) over

(3) about

(4) against

(5) in

Q6 (a)

(1) cold shoulder:

After their argument, she gave him the cold shoulder.

(2) Out of the Blue:

She entered the party all out of the blue.

(3) Green thumb:

My grandmother has a green thumb & her garden is always filled with beautiful flowers.

~~the Blue stanking~~

(8) Black and Blue

I fell down the stairs and now my knee is black and blue.

(9) Square meal:

I had a long day at work, so I treated myself to a square meal at my favourite restaurant.

Q6 (B)

Hassan Ali Gondal asked Shahab <sup>that</sup> when his book would be ready. Shahab replied that he believed it would be ready at the end of November.

Hassan Ali Gondal then asked that what the deal was & mentioned that the competitive exams market is full of essay stuff. What's special about this.

Shahab replied that he only spoke about the International standards of good in Essay writing that he was taught at Christ Church University during his one year teachers training course. His book follows the same standards. Moreover, it included different practical activities rather than ready-made content for cramming.

To what Hassan Ab Gondal responded that if it was so that it gonna clear most of the misconceptions about essay writing.

Q7.

Millions of Pakistani youngsters comes in the category of Generation Z. It's the generation born ~~in~~ after 2000. and now <sup>they are</sup> 23 or 24 years old. In whole world <sup>historically</sup> this generation is considered as physically ill and mentally ~~not~~ psychologically ill. In Era they are brought up, it's era of technological development. Internet, social media is in direct contact with them.