Robert Whiting, an elderly US Gentleman, of 83 arrived in Paris by plane at French customs. He took a few minutes to locate his passport in his carry on. "You have been to France" before, Monsieur the Custom officer asked sarcastically. Mr Whiting admitted that he had been to France previously, then "You should know enough to have your passport ready." The American said the last time: "I was here. I did not have to show it." Impossible, "Americans always have to show their passports on arrival in France", sneered the Custom officer. The American senior gave the Frenchman a long hard look. Then, he quietly explained, "Well, When I came ashore at Omaha Beach at 4:40am, on D-Day in 1944, to help liberate your country, I couldn't find a single Frenchman to show a passport to." You could have heard a pin drop.
