

202 (1)

Paper: Precis and Composition

Q2: Make a precis of the following passage and suggest a suitable title.

Precis:-

Physical and moral courage Both are essential for military leaders, citing examples like Marlborough's calm courage and Joffre's determined demeanor. It acknowledges the relative importance of health in general and highlights historical instances where a resilient spirit prevailed in physically frail bodies. The discussion then turns to the contentious issue of age in military leadership, exploring examples from ancient times to modern figures like Moltke and Foch. While recognising the historical success of both young and older generals, it concludes that the balance between youthful energy and mature judgment is challenging to determine, advocating for a nuanced approach to age in military leadership.

Title:- "Essential elements of military leadership"

Ques:-

Connected Sentences:-

- a) Hardly, he reached the station then it began to rain.
- d) I have been preparing for CES since last October.
- f) My Mother forbade me to smoke.
- g) A child dream about becoming famous one day.
- h) The culture of our country is richer than other countries of the world.

QNO. 5(A).

Punctuation

Robert Whiting, an elderly US gentleman of 83, arrived in Paris by plane at French customs. He took a few minutes to locate his passport. In his carry on, "you have been to France before," murmured the Customs Officer asked sarcastically. Mr. Whiting admitted that he had been to France previously. "Then you should know enough to have passport ready," The American said the last line, "I was here! I didn't have to show it." "Impossible! Americans always have to show their passport on arrival in France," sneered the Customs Officer. The American senior gave the Frenchman along, hard look. Then he quietly explained, well! "when I came aboard

QNO:-

Corrected Sentences:-

- a) Hardly, he reached the station than it began to rain.
- d) I have been preparing for CSS since last October.
- f) my Mother forbade me to smoke.
- g) A child dream about becoming famous oneday.
- h) The culture of our country is richer than other countries of the world.

QNO. 51A)

Punctuation

Robert Whiting, an elderly US gentleman of 83, arrived in Paris by plane at French customs. He took a few minutes to locate his passport. In his carry on, "you have been to France before," Monsieur, the Customs Officer asked sarcastically. Mr. Whiting admitted that he had been to France previously. "Then you should know enough to have passport ready," The American said the last line. "I was here! I didn't have to show it." "Impossible! Americans always have to show their passport on arrival in France," sneered the custom Officer. The American senior gave the Frenchman along, hard look. Then he quietly explained, well! "when I came ashore at Omaha Beach at 4:40 am, on D-Day in 1944, to help liberate your country, I couldn't find a single Frenchman to show a passport to — " You could have heard a pin drop.

(Q5(B)) Re-write the following sentences.

1. A drowning man catches at a straw
2. On the night before the exam, she was seen pouring on the books.
3. He felt no qualms on borrowing money from his friends.
4. The man was blind by his left eye.
5. On being fined, he was sentenced to a term of imprisonment.

(QNO 6(A))

Idiom Words

Sentences

Black and Blue

We found the poor guy black and blue near the train track.

Cold shoulder

My friend had shown cold shoulder in exams.

Green thumb

Alia has unbelievably green thumb.

(B) Re-write the following passage.

Hassan Ali Gondal asked Shahab when his essay book would be ready. Shahab replied that he believed it would be ready at the end of November.

Hassan Ali Gondal inquired about the uniqueness of Shahab's book, mentioning that the competitive exams market was already full of essay material. ~~Shahab~~..

Shahab responded that he spoke only about international standards in essay writing taught at Christ Church University during his one year teacher training course.

He added that his book followed the same standards and included various practice activities instead of readymade content for cramming.

Hassan Ali Gondal remarked that if that were the case, Shahab's book would clear most of the misconceptions about essay writing.

Q7 Translation

Billions of the youngsters of Pakistan lie in generation-Z. ~~the last~~

This generation came into being in 2000 and its age is 23, 24 years now. This generation is considered as weak physically weak and mentally psycho patient across the world. This has grown up in the era of using technology at peak. Internet, mobile phone, Tablet, TV channels and social media lie in approach of this generation.

The brought up of this generation is not done by senior citizens but by social media had did this, such is the common problem of whole world for this generation. They have less patience than aggression. Their physical health is so weak and unhealthy. And this human generation is taking much time to settle by their own efforts.

Q.3

1. We complicate our lives by the excessive use of machines. calculators are use for calculations. computers are storing our knowledge. By the more easier and comfortable life, we are not happy but all these comforts have made our life complicated.
2. The writer has made reference to "the wisdom of our ancestors" by mentioning example of limiting communication. According to the passage communication should be simple and clear.
3. New Tower of Babel is referred to the nuclear war. Americans are the chief inventors of New Tower Babel.

4. Psychologist and sociologist has been telling us we should remove our conventions that parents disguise their fo worries from their families.

5. According to writer, we have reasoning power which other living creature don't have and we have also reason of choice. Therefore, we have independence to adopt changes.

