

Q2, Read passage & answer the questions.

1. Infer from passage . . . . . order given.

Ans) According to the passage there are many ways that human complicate his life. Human has made the conversation more complicated, there is no communication between parent and children, books are being limited from general knowledge to textbooks, Noise has become part of the human life and the world is changing too fast.

2. In the passage . . . . . give or imply.

Ans) By the reference to "the wisdom of our ancestors" the writer gives examples of how they used to have simple conversations, ~~they~~ there were no psychological issue with them, children were allowed to read as many books as they want, there was no noise and the world was changing at a pace which was acceptable to humans.

3. Give one example . . . . . opinion of it?

Ans) Psychologists and socialists suggests that tension is the hallmark of 20th century misery and much of it is imbibed in fantasy. According to the writer the topic of parents bottling everything up and not talking to their families should be reviewed to tackle this situation.

5. To what - - - - - of choice?

Ans) The world is changing very fast, therefore, the writer implies that we should imply our reasoning power and measure of choice to reflect long and carefully on independence when all around us changes.

Q4. Correct any five of the following sentences.

1. Hardly he reached the station than it began to rain.
He had hardly reached the station when it began to rain.

2. I am preparing for CSS exam since last October.

I am preparing for CSS since October.

3. My mother forbade me to not to smoke.
My mother forbade me from smoking.

4. Many a child dream about becoming famous one day.
Many children dream of becoming famous.

5. The culture of our country is richer than any other country in the world.

Our culture is richer than any other culture of the world.

Q1; Punctuate the following passage.

Robert Whiting - an elderly US gentleman of 83 - arrived in Paris by plane. At French Customs he took few minutes to locate his passport in his carry on. "You have been to France before?", Monsieur, the Customs officer, asked sarcastically. Mr. Whiting admitted that he had been to France before. "The you should know enough to have your passport ready". The American said: "The last time I was here I didn't have to show it". "Impossible! Americans always have to show their passports on arrival in France", sneered the Custom officer. The American senior gave the Frenchman a long hard look. Then he quietly explained, "Well, when I came ashore at Omaha Beach, at 4:40am, on D-Day 1944, to help liberate your country, I couldn't find a single Frenchman to show a passport to....". You could have heard a pin drop.

B. Re-write the following with appropriate Prepositions.

1. A drowning man catches on a straw.
2. On the night before the exam, she was seen pouring over the books.
3. He felt no qualms on borrowing money from his friends.
4. Despite being fined, he was sentenced to a term of imprisonment.
5. In some countries much of the natural environment has been transformed to farmland.

07. Translation.

There are millions of people in Pakistan that belongs to Gen Z generation. Gen Z are those who were born after the year 2000 and they maybe 23, 24 years old now. In the history of world generations, Gen Z is the most weak and psychological depressed generation. They grew up in the time of technological advancement and with using technological devices. They have access to internet, mobile phones, tablets, TV channels and social media. This generation's parenting is done by social media rather than its parents and this is the main problem of this generation. They have less patience and more anger. Their physical health is too much weak and fragile. and in the history of human, this generation is taking the longest to get settled.

23 Precis:

What makes a Commander in Command.

Many of the qualities can be seen in different timeline that has helped generals, commander to win a fight or war. Courage is the must have for everyone. According to Voltaire the calm nature in midst of turmoil is also to have but we also can see that the same quality was found to be the disaster of many commanders. Same goes for Health, although it could be considered very vital but a great spirit can rule in frail body. Then come age, it is true that many young generals have won many wars but we cannot turn blind eye to Turenne's campaign, Moltke, Robert, Foch whom won their battles in old age. Hence, ~~it is~~ to be a great commander you should know how to use the abilities you have rather than looking for abilities other had.