Robert Whiting, an elderly US gentleman of 83 arrived in Paris at French customs. He took a few minutes to locate his passport in his carry on. "You have been to France before?" Monsieur, the customs officer asked sarcastically. Mr. Whiting admitted that, he had been to France previously. "Then you should know enough to have your passport ready". The American said, "the last time, I was here, I didn't have to show it." "Impossible, Americans always have to show their passports on arrival in France," sneered the Customs officer. The American senior gave the Frenchman a long, hard look. Then he quietly explained, "well, when I came ashore at Omaha Beach, at 4:40 am, on D-Day in 1944, to help liberate your country, I couldn't find a single Frenchman to show a passport to. — You could have heard a pin drop."

Millions of Pakistan's youth fall in the Z-generation. This generation has come into existence post-2000 and its' current age is 23, 24 years now. It is deemed the most weak and vulnerable physically and psychological mentally generation throughout the human's history. It will grow in that era which is the era of technology. This generation will grow while using technology. It has internet, mobile phones, tablets, TV channels and social media in its' access- It was trained by social media instead of elders and this generation has only ^{one} problem throughout the world that they have less patience but more aggression. Their physical health is tremendously weak and fragile and is consuming more time to get on their feet in the human's history.

One must have physical and moral courage. Voltaire regards courage and serenity of soul in danger, a greatest gift for command. Even though a later military writer was compelled by the determination and calmness of Joffre, although he did not have high regard for him/Joffre. According to writer, health is also important but it is a relative quality. A great spirit needs no healthy body as the case studies of Wolfe and others show. Another thing is age for command, but it is difficult to determine the exact age that when the general ceases to be dangerous. Mostly young men get highest prizes of war, but there are also many counter cases when aged people got highest prizes of war. The level for courage in youth cannot be given exact figures. If old person has capability to take bolder decisions then his leadership will be beneficial. But undoubtedly, ^{good} young general will usually beat a good old one as evident by the recent lowering of age of our generals, even if cause
