Robert Whiting, an elderly US gentleman of 83, arrived in Paris by plane at France Customs. He took a few minutes to locate his passport in his carry on. "You have been to France before?" Monsieur, the Customs officer asked sarcastically. Mr. Whiting admitted that he had been to France previously. "Then you should know enough to have your passport ready." The American said, "The last time I was here, I didn't have to show it." "Impossible! Americans always have to show their passports on arrival in France..." sneered the Customs officer. The American senior gave the Frenchman a long, hard look. Then he quietly explained, "Well, when I came ashore at Omaha Beach, at 4:40 am, on D-Day in 1944, to help

Revis Suitable Title: Qualities of a good general

Preci

A general is required to have courage. Marlborough was praised by Voltaire for his calm courage and serenity of soul in danger. Health is another important quality in a general. However, health is a relative term. A great spirit can reside in a healthy body. Then there is the issue of age for a general. Many believed, such as Hannibal, Alexander, Napoleon etc., that young men make good general. However, there are many examples of great expeditions of generals at old age. For instance, Marlborough was 61 at the time of his most admired manoeuvre and Turenne's last campaign at the age of 63 is considered as the oldest and best. Giving values to the ~~passion~~ passion of youth against the wisdom of the elderly, is an enigma. The riper generals are superior in their knowledge, judgement and experience. ~~Therefore~~ At the same time, a young good general usually beats a good old one. Therefore, recent lowering of age of our generals is a right decision.
