

Q5(a)

Robert Whiting, an elderly US gentleman of 83, arrived in Paris by plane. At French customs he took a few minutes to locate his passport in his carry on.

"You have been to France before, Monsieur?"

The custom officer asked sarcastically. Mr. Whiting admitted that he ~~said~~ had been to France previously. "Then you should know enough to have your passportready." The American said, "The last time I was here I didn't have to show it." "Impossible! Americans always have to show their passport on arrival in France," sneered the custom officer. The American senior gave the Frenchmen a long, hard look. Application of narration rules is fine

Then he quickly explained, "Well, when I came ashore at Omaha Beach, at 4:40 am, on D-Day in 1944, to help liberate your country, I could not find a single Frenchman to show a passport to. . . . You could have heard a pin drop."
