built calmness and determination in danger. Thus, it must be present physically and morally in general. In contrast, health, though, it is precious but it has nothing to do with the great spirit of the general. Moreover, the question of age is difficult to find what age of general is best to ~~the first group~~ <sup>classes</sup> ~~ms~~ <sup>that</sup> the war. There are two views regarding this context. The first ~~stands~~ with the young generals - considering them being the highest prizes for the war. The second ~~stands~~ with the generals age of 40 - as being the highest prize for the war. However, the enthusiasm of young generals and experience of old generals can not be comparable. As an old general can beat a young general with maturity, boldness, advanced knowledge and judgment. And, same goes for the young generals which are encouragingly increasing nowadays.

QUESTION NO. 5 A

Robert Whiting, an elderly US gentleman of 83, arrived in Paris by plane. At French Customs, he took a few minutes to locate his passport. In his carry on, "You have been to France before?" Monsieur, the customs officer asked sarcastically. Mr. Whiting said, "The last time, I was here", "I didn't have to show it?" "Impossible! Americans always have to show their passports on arrival in France," sneered the customs officer. The American senior gave the Frenchman a hard look. Then he quietly explained, "Well, when I came ashore at Omaha Beach, at 4:40 am. on D-Day in 1944, to help liberate your country, I couldn't find a single Frenchman to show a passport to... You could have heard a pin drop."
