Q-5 (A): Robert Whiting, an elderly US gentleman of 83, arrived in Paris by plane. At French customs, he took a few minutes to locate his passport in his carry on, "You have been to France before?" Monsieur the Customs Officer asked sarcastically. Mr. Whiting admitted that he had been to France previously. "Then you should know enough to have your passport ready." The American said "The last time I was here I didn't have to show it." "Impossible! Americans always have to show their passport on arrival in France", sneered the Customs Officer. The American senior gave the Frenchman a long hard look, then he quietly explained, "Well, when I came ashore at Omaha Beach, at 4:40 am, on D-Day in 1944, to help liberate your country, I couldn't find a single Frenchman to show a passport to ... you could have heard a pin drop."

Q-2:-

Attributes of a General

Title: ~~Age of Generals; Experience of Old Age Vs. Firing Spirit of Youth~~

Poëcis: ~~Courage~~ is an important quality of a general, but ~~courage~~ with calmness is more important. ~~A~~ Many philosophers and writers have praised ~~the~~ some generals due to their ability of being calm in chaotic situation that helped them to overcome the mistakes they committed previously. Health is another important quality a general can have; it must be viewed in relation to the other qualities, as many great generals who secure great victories had been sick during their campaign. The question of the age of a general is a complicated one, as it is difficult to determine the perfect age for a general that make it deadly for the enemies. There are many great generals who secured great victories in young age, while there are also many other great generals who were formidable, distinctive and energetic during their military campaigns in late age of late 60s and 70s.
