

Name :- Asad Ali
 LMS ID :- 30306
 Batch :- 54

Q2)

Precis:-

A general needs to be brave, mentally and physically strong and experienced. Voltaire's admiration for Marlborough serves as an example of the importance of courage. Great generals like Wolfe have demonstrated that a strong spirit is a triumph over physical limits, despite the importance of physical power. There is a still disagreement over the appropriate age for the general. Older generals such as Caesar and Cromwell have also proved that their mettle even while younger general like Hannibal and Napoleon have accomplished amazing feats. Therefore, Good understanding of the passage with a balance of these attributes are most successful.

Title:- The Paradox of courage, Fitness and Age in Military Leadership: The Unsung Hero of War

First portion is fine

Q3

Questions :-

Q1)

Ans)

The life of humans became more difficult by adopting technology innovations that cause complexity and anxiety. It states that since machines perform a large portion of our labour and people are less stressed, live and more organized. But it contends that despite of luxury and comfort, anxiety and depressive episode continue to suggest that the development of technology has made our lives more complex and demanding.

Q2)

Ans

The passage suggest that humans can benefit somewhat from forefathers knowledge. It implies that since English allows for a great deal of expression and has a large vocabulary of brief words that human should insist on straightforward communication. It also suggest that parents should bring back the custom of hiding their concerns from family. The wisdom of fances for that could be beneficial

(Q3)

Ans) The metaphor of "the new Tower of Babel" to allude to the possibility for misunderstanding and confusion that resulting from the use of lengthy and imprecise language in conversation. It implies that the employment of ambiguous language may very well be the cause of a situation is touched to ignite a nuclear war as a result of misinterpreting a badly written message. The sentence "because the Americans are the leading architects of new Tower of Babel" suggest Americans are the primary creators of this tower.

(Q4)

Ans) Tension is the defining feature of 20th century unhappiness and a lot of ingrained in early life. This is the belief that psychologist and sociologist have been preaching. The writer's view on this is crucial because it implies that the spite of what sociologists and psychologist may teach. Human should bring back the customs of parents hiding their concern from the families. This shows that the writer disagrees with the notion that conflict is unavoidable and ought to be expressed honestly.

Q5)

Ans) The author suggests that when things around us change and human should use our ability to reason and our degree of free will to consider independence in depth. According to the passage, the rate of change of accelerated that making adaption more challenging. As a result, ~~we~~^{humans} should consider our independence and use reason to meet the problems presented by the world's rapid changes.

Q4)

- i) ~~Hardly~~ Hardly had he reached the station than it began to rain.
- ii) I have been preparing CSS exams since last October.
- iii) If only I could go back in time!
- iv) We had better leave before the police arrive.
- v) While standing in line, I could hear the thunder.

Q5) Punctuation

Robert Whiting, an elderly US gentleman, at 83 arrived in Paris by plane at French Customs. He took a few minutes to locate his passport in his carry-on.

"You have been to French before, Monsieur", the Customs officer asked sarcastically. Mr. Whiting admitted that he had been to France previously. "Then you should know enough to have your passport ready", the American was told. The American responded,

"The last time I was here, I didn't have to show it; it's impossible - Americans always have to show their passports on arrival in France, sneered the custom officer. The American senior gave the Frenchman a long, hard look. Then he quietly explained, "Well, when I came ashore at Omaha Beach, at 4:40 am, on D-Day in 1944, to help liberate your country, I couldn't find a single Frenchman to show a passport to -". The atmosphere you could have heard a pin drop

Write with different punctuation markers to distinguish punctuation marks

B.

- i) The man was blind in his left eye.
- ii) Cyber-attacks are much easier to carry out than to defend against.
- iii) A drowning man clutches at a straw.
- iv) He felt no qualms about borrowing money from his friend.
- v) On the night before the exam, she was seen poring over the books.

(D6)

- i) After their argument, Sarah gave Michael the cold shoulder for the rest of the week.
- ii) In the scandal, the CEO was made scapegoat for the company's wrongdoings.
- iii) The politician used the issue of immigration as a stalking horse to attack his opponents.
- iv) The unprepared student was an easy sitting duck for the difficult exam.
- v) Out of the blue, my old friend called me after years of no contact.

B.

Hassan Ali Giondal asked Shahab when his essay book would be ready. Shahab replied that he believed it would be ready at the end of November. Hassan Ali Giondal then inquired about the uniqueness of Shahab's book, stating that the competitive exam market was already full of essay material. Shahab explained that his book focused on the international standards of essay writing taught at Christ Church University during his one-year teacher training course. He added that his book allowed the same standards and included different practice activities rather than ready-made content for cramming. Hassan Ali Giondal remarked that if that was the case, Shahab's book would clear most of the misconceptions about essay writing.

(17)

Billions of young people across the globe fall under this type of ~~category~~ ^{Generation Z}. This is the generation that was born after 2000 and now it was 20 year old. This generation is considered to be practically weak and mentally ill in the medical history of the world and it has grown up in a time that is heavily dependent on technology. This generation has grown up while using technology. Its diet consist of only cell phones, tablets, TVs and social media. This generation's trainings based on social media and this is a problem for the whole world. They have less patience and more anger. Their physical health is weak and vulnerable. And in the medical history, that generation is facing more time to stand on its own feet.