

Rampant religious Extremism in the world as manifestation of human nature

0/100

Outline:

I. Introduction

Thesis statement :-

Religious Extremism poses a serious threat to world's peace and endanger human rights and international security. To combat the challenge, it is important to tackle the root cause that fuel the religious extremism.

This does not address the topic. The topic is that the presence of religious extremism is representation of human nature in the world

II. Debunking Religious Extremism

III. Relationship between Religious Extremism and human nature

IV. Case Studies of religious Extremism in the world:

Don't just mention case studies. You need to first make an argument.

- a) Pakistan : Jaranwala, Faizabad Incident
- b) Rise of Hindutva Extremism and fall of Christian & muslim minorities
- c) Middle east : Shia V/s sunni tensions
- d) Case of central African Republic & Nigeria

What is the point of these

Date: _____

- e) Myanmar : Tensions b/w Buddhist majority and muslim minority
- f) Palestinian issue : An ideological and religious extremist narrative

IV Factors contributing to the rise of extremist ideologies in religious communities .

- a) Socio-economic disparities
- b) Political grievances
- c) lack of education
- d) Culture alienation
- e) Inactive role of media, Scholars, and International organizations
- f) Misuse of Blasphemy laws by religious extremist groups e.g. Jaranwala, Faisalabad incident

VI How to combat Religious Extremism

- a) Promote religious harmony & tolerance How??
- b) Promote education and Non-Sectarianism Two separate points
- c) Effective law enforcement and Intelligence Cooperation
- d) Active role of media in Shaping public opinion.
- e) Colabration between curriculum and Textbook-making Authorities

VII Conclusion

Outline does not address the topic. You don't address How Religious extremism is the manifestation of human nature