Robert Whitrig, an elderly US gentleman of 83, arrived in Paris by plane at French Customs. He took a few minutes to locate his passport in his carry on. You have been to France before, Monsieur, the custom officer asked sarcastically. Mr. Whitrig admitted that he had been to France previously. Then, "You should know enough to have your passport ready". The American said, the last time "I was here, I did not have to show it". Impossible! American always have to show their passports on arrival in France, sneered the custom officer. The American senior gave the Frenchman a long, hard look. Then he quickly explained well, when I came ashore at Omaha Beach, at 4:40 am, on D-Day in 1944, to help to liberate country, I couldn't find a single Frenchman to show a passport to. You could have heard a pin drop."

Q 6 (B)

Hasan Ali Gondal asked to Shahab when would his essay book be ready. Shahab replied that "I believe, at the end of November". Hassan Ali Gondal further asked about the deal. The competitive exams market was full of essay stuff. And further asked what is special about yours. Shahab replied "I ~~am~~ <sup>speak</sup> ~~about~~ the international standards journal message writing that I ~~was~~ <sup>taught</sup> at Christ Church University during my one year teachers training course. My notes ~~form~~ <sup>are</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>standards</sup> ~~standards~~ <sup>successfully</sup>. Moreover, it includes different practice activities rather than ready-made content for learning. Hassan Gondal further said if it were so, then it was gonna clear most of the misconceptions about essay."
