

Date: _____

Topic: Challenges of Hybrid Warfare and Regional Dynamics

The Outline:

I- Introduction:

Thesis Statement: Pakistan is facing the threat of hybrid warfare in shape of diplomatic, social, and economic fronts. Though this is an on-going challenge, Pakistan has the potential to fight against it actively and keenly.

II- Understanding Hybrid Warfare

III- Correlation between ongoing Regional Dynamics and Hybrid Warfare

- a- Fall of Dhaka as manifestation of hybrid warfare
- b- The proxy war between Iran and the K.S.A directly hits Pakistan
- c- Diplomatic isolation of Pakistan in International Community.
- d- High inflow of Afghan migrants
- e- Disinformation by India to declare Pakistan as a terrorist country
- f- Negative role of social media to sabotage Pakistan's soft image.

Date: _____

g- Cyberattacks against Pakistan as a powerful tool of hybrid warfare

h- Buildup of economic pressure

IV- WAY Forward for Pakistan against Hybrid Warfare

a- Advocating the unite diplomacy

b- Fostering the democracy

c- Promoting inter-faith relations

d- Collective institution decision-making

V- Conclusion

Topic: Challenges of Hybrid Warfare and Regional Dynamics.

Allah almighty has created human being as a master creation of this world. It means, he can achieve high degree of progressive and prosper civilization. Yet this is a fact that human being engaged in wars due to greed. These wars evolve with time and the latest form of war is hybrid warfare. The regional dynamics around the Pakistan manifest that we are in era of hybrid warfare. In context of Pakistan, the fall of Dharka was first attempt to divide Pakistan using manipulative technique of hybrid warfare. Then it prevails in regional, social and media spheres. Although, the state of Pakistan is in continuous threat of hybrid warfare, there are some preventative measures for Pakistan to cope-up this challenge. On a brief account, Pakistan is facing

Date: _____

The threat of hybrid warfare in the shape of diplomatic, social, and economic platforms. Though this is an on-going challenge, Pakistan has the potential to fight against this menace actively through inter faith relation, fostering democracy and promoting unite diplomacy.