Translation

A student's aim of life is to get enlightenment from teachers and books, which can enlighten the dark aspects of life for them. Consistency and integrity is required to ~~fulf~~^{achieve} this aim. Every opposing external factor needs to be kept separate from teaching circle. Otherwise the peril is that ~~the~~ training of students may left incomplete and time required to be spent in gaining knowledge may get wasted in the excitement of political activities. Our country needs more scholars and intellectuals than political workers, who are the sum of oriental studies, western studies, theology and and worldly knowledge. Apparently such versatile people can be produced ^{only} when political factors do not interrupt in academic activities. It is said that our education standard is lower than that of ~~the~~ the West. It is the outcome of our economic conditions upto some extent. It is also not far from reality that most of our teachers are unable to ignite the motive for knowledge in students. However, most of the responsibility should fall certainly on the students, themselves.

How to control begging in India?

According to author the profession of begging has been increasing. Due to their outlarge number of beggars, foreign visitors have started calling few cities as the cities of beggars. Instead of counting their number, practical steps are required to curb this practice. Among multiple causes, the religious nature and generosity of locals and their desire for rewards in the hereafter motivate them to give alms to the beggars. Similarly, some beggars have this profession in legacy of their ancestors. Similarly, healthy people are generally seen begging by making beggars like appearances.
