Title:

Professional Begging, Cause and Preventions in India

Professional begging has increased in India due to sharing interest with outsiders, who visit India's cities for pilgrimage. However the data is unavailable for their ~~total~~ estimation of total number. Now it is not required to investigate their numbers, it's time to check and investigate how they live and how they affect our society, because as stated that they ~~are~~ belongs to foreign country the main reason of the increase is concept of karma. The Indian people give charity ensure moksha. if they give in this world, they definitely received in the next world. For this purpose they search people and offer donation and charity. Moreover some beggars who wearing colourful clothes and visit some specific house in specific time are strange in nature because some of them have more than their need, ~~and~~ even they are richer. Now the major concern is how to resolve this issue because as per parliamentary act begging is a crime. The major causes of begging are unemployment poverty and continue increase in population. But despite of all factors, the begging is a disease in india which has deeper root in society. The one other reason of begging is to give charity to disable persons that misplaced charity increase poverty and social evils, if as educated people give charity with out any investigating, the cause is begging increase in country for prevention, the state make proper laws for ^{control} growth rate, introduce in society, the begger leazy unhalpy life.
