

(Question - 3);

1- According to author, Freedom and personal time is likely to become a scarcity in the future. It is because people spent most of the time of their day in communicating with others through digital devices. So, it will be scarce to find p-time for personal needs.

2- In context of passage, people have lost the ability of usefulness of modern machines and information because of the constant inflow of data. It is, when people get a continued series of knowledge, they are unable to sift the useful knowledge from sea of information.

3- Author says, "we have more and more ways to communicate, but less and less to say"; because these communications are imposed on us in the shape of trends and to meet the deadlines of schedules. This communications are not for the inter-personal interaction.

4- People are taking an active interest in old-age pads because they want some personal time. People are so fed up of busy schedules with digital devices; thus, they turn to meditation like practice to connect themselves with nature and ^{to} their inner personal world.

5-

5- In context of passage, the modern man is unable to empathise with others because he is so busy with high-speed life that could not take time to be concerned ~~for~~ others.

(Question-7)

It is the life responsibility of a student to take benefits from books and teachers which can illuminate the dark path of life.

The fulfillment of this responsibility requires concentration and consistency. Every external influence, which has negative effect, has to be eliminated from education circle. Otherwise, its implication will be that the precious time which supposed to be utilized in student's nourishment would go in vain, and it will vanish in the ^{mere} political jeopardize. Our country needs that scholars and nobles, instead of politicians, which can provide eastern, western, and religious and worldly education simultaneously. Such ^{noble} people can be produced only when they do not intersect politics with educational activities. It is a general saying, our education system lags compare to western countries, and it is result of our economic decline, up to some extent. But it is also not against reality that our most of teachers are unable to ignite the lone god knowledge in the hearts of students. However, the major share of this responsibility, of course, within students.

(Question-2)

Title: Begging: -The Increasing profession in India

Begging is an increasing profession in India. There are many factors which are increasing the number of beggars. One of the most important factor is religious tourism, as Indian society is more religious and have incline to charity, beggars find their ways during religious tourism. They show up in miserable outlook to attract empathy and charity, some even with able-bodies. Other factors in increasing begging are poverty, unemployment and increase in population.

However, some beggars inherent this profession but at same time strangely some of them are richer. Whatever is the cause, the problem is beggars are increasing in numbers. This problem can be resolved by promoting awareness about charity that it is not for able-bodied individuals. Secondly, there is need of maintaining strict regulations to eliminate begging.

(Question-4)

- (a) Faheem was wearing glasses when he was younger, but now he has contact lenses.
- (b) Salma takes her driving test five times without having any success, but still she has not given up.
- (c) I am wasting lots of time going to and from work; because I lived far from my workplace.
- (d) Sir Azhar Afzal is reading a novel for previous five days.

- (e) The price of onions has come down.
(f) He is said that he was suffering from fever.
(h) He wishes if he could a prince.

(Question-5, a)

The Hodja always wanted to learn something new, and one day he had a sudden inspiration to learn: how to play the lute. He approached a music teacher and asked him, "How much do you charge for private lute?", "Three silver pieces for the first month of tax that one silver piece a month." Oh, great! exclaimed Hodja, then, "I'll will ~~not~~ start with the second month".

(Question-5, b)

- (i) in
(ii) to
(iii) to
(iv) at
(v) at
(vi) for ~~to~~ to
(vii) on

(viii) in

(Question-6, b)

Maggie asked Tom that how much money he gave for the rabbits. Tom replied that five shillings and six pence he gave. Maggie said that she thought she had gotten more than this in her box upstairs. Then she said that she will ask her mother to give it to Tom. Tom replied that for what? He said that he did not want her money, and he had gotten far more money. But Maggie said that she wanted to buy some more rabbits.