Q No 7 Translation

The objective of a student's life is to get acquaintance from teachers and books, then can illuminate darkness of life. To fulfill this obligation, he requires independency and equanimity. He has to separate every external hindrance that is against his academic activities. Otherwise, there is a danger to let his training remained incomplete and the time that he has to spend in acquiring knowledge could be drained in political activities. Instead of political activist, our country needs such scholars that are expert in western, eastern, religious and life science knowledge. Though such an unanimous scholars could only be produced when politics did not hinder education. It is said that our educational system is less competitive than western countries. To some extent, it is due to our poor economic conditions. On the other hand, it would not to be said wrong that to some extent our teachers have failed to sow seed of knowledge's desire in the hearts of students. But, as far as responsibility is concerned students must ~~take~~ follow it. / take it.
