

Moksha through Giving Alms?

The author has argued that, India has become a begging in India has become a professional means of earning for many. Although, statistics are not available, but it is visible to anyone visiting India. The writers said that, these beggars are thriving on the fear of common religious people. These people in order to find Moksha in the next world, have to give charity to the beggars. The author has further argued that such practices have become part and parcel of India, and it will have serious impacts on the society. There can be more than one cause of begging in the society, but it is upto the government to stop this menace from spreading like a cancer. According to the author, the people should be educated that there is no punya in giving alms to a perfectly healthy person. Such mindset of people will decrease the practice of alms giving to anyone, that will in turn help curbing the menace of begging.

Question 3

i.) According to author, freedom will become scarce in the future. He has argued that currently, a teenager sends or receives atleast seventy-five texts and, an average person spends spends eight and a half hours a day in front of the screen. Therefore, the freedom will become scarce in future, and people will crave for freedom.

ii. The author has said that, due to constant flow of data, one is unable to comprehend and understand the data. He said that there is a need of slowing down things, so that one able to find the time and space to think and analyze the information coming.

iii. ~~Author has argued that, with the technological revolution there are many means of communication.~~

Author has argued that, with the technological revolution, means of communication have been established but people has less to say. This is because people are rushing to meet deadlines, and unable to create work-life balance. Therefore, by creating work-life balance people will be able to communicate and more to say.

IV. The author has argued that, people have started to take an active interest in old-age fads such as yoga, meditation or tai chi. This has become a norm because the best results have shown that people resorting to old age fads have greater attentiveness, stronger memory, and have calmer and sharper minds.

V. According to author, the modern man is unable to empathise with others because the technology has made him inherently slow. Modern man lags in attentiveness, sharp and calmer mind because of constant inflow of data, and they are left with no time and space to think. Therefore, a person is unable to say and empathise with others.

Question 4

(a) Faheem was wearing glasses when he was younger, but now he had contact lenses. Faheem wore glasses when he was younger, but now he have contact lenses.

(b) Although, Salma has took her driving test five times so far without success, but she didnot give up.

d) Sir Azhar Afzal is reading a novel since five days.

g) Sir Ali Shahab has left for Karachi last week.

f) He said that he was suffering from a fever.

Question 5(A) - Punctuation

The Hodja always wanted to learn something new. One day, he had a sudden inspiration to learn how to play the lute. He approached a music teacher and asked him, "how much do you charge for private lute lessons? Lessons?" The teacher said, "three silver pieces for the first month, after that one silver piece a month." "Oh, great!" exclaimed Hodja, "I will start with the second month!"

Q5 (B)

i. He quarreled over a trifle

ii. He is addicted to smoking

iii. He resigned from his job

iv. I am waiting at the bus stop

v. Are you with or against the President?

Question 6(A)

v. Famous

Karachi is famous for its spicy food.

Notorious

History has proved that notorious back benchers at a classroom can become the great minds of the century.

vii. Bow

Words said cannot be unsaid, just like an arrow that leaves a bow.

Bow

The girl was praised for its small and beautiful bow.

vi. Hue

That dark red hue lipstick suited her over-all makeup.

Hew

To find the solution of this problem is like sifting a pin from hew.

iii. Dual

Sharukh Khan's dual performance in his new movie Jauran has been praised overall the globe.

Duel

In past, for one to marry the princess, one had to enter a duel with the other candidates.

iv. Eminent

Unstability in the system is an eminent outcome of corrupt practices.

Imminent

Unbridled growth of Artificial intelligence is an imminent threat to the very existence of human race.

Question 7

The purpose of a student's life is to get themselves nourished ^{with} from intellect and knowledge from the books and teachers. All this will enable the students to attain bright future. To gain the benefit, the students must remain focused and consistent. Moreover, they need all the extra curricular activities must be separated from education, so that students don't waste their time in the political activities. We don't need political workers, but such intellectual that are experts in Eastern, Western, and religious knowledge. Such personalities can only born when there is no place for politics in the system of education. It is said, that our education system is worst as compared to western education systems, it may be result of our current situation. In addition, teachers as well as students today are merely interested in gaining the knowledge. However the greater responsibility lies on the shoulder of students.