Translation

It is the duty of the students to be loyal to teachers and books. This will enlighten the darker side of their life. This duty requires calmness and persistence. Every external factor that is negative, must be kept away from the teaching institutes. Otherwise it will hamper the training of the students and the time of the students that he must invest in his studies, so that they should not be wasted in the political activities.

Our Country needs more scholars and teachers than politicians who are pro at western education, eastern education, religious education and modern education. These scholars can be produced only when politicians do not indulge in the educational activities. It is said that our educational system is poor as compared with western educational system, it is due to the political instability. And it is somehow true that the teachers do not create the lust for education among students. But majorly it depends upon the students.

Comprehension

- 1) According to the author, luxury is a likely to become a scarcity in the future. That luxury is freedom or being liberal. This would be the most important thing for the children.
- 3) The author says that we have more and more ways to communicate, but less and less to say because of advancement in technology. Advancement in technology would bring a lot of methods to communicate with mobile screens instead of meeting directly and talking face to face. All of this is due to busy routine of people.
- 4) People are taking an active interest in the old-age fads like yoga, meditation or tai chi etc. They are doing this because they want to decrease the screen time. So that they can achieve moral and emotional clarity in their lives.
- 5) The modern <sup>man</sup> is unable to empathise with others because he is not emotionally and morally strong. They are not empathetic because of their busy lives and more screen time. This empathy and deep thoughts are developed in a calm environment.

Hereditary begging lead towards chronic

Hereditary begging lead towards chronic poverty

In India, begging is prevailing and it has become a profession. It is especially eminent in the cities of pilgrimage and the number is increasing day by day. One of the biggest reasons for increase in number of beggars is the religious approach of people. As, they will donate more in charity, it will help them in next world, keeping them away from all sufferings. This approach had somehow favoured the beggars. Thus they adopted begging hereditarily which lead towards chronic poverty. Although, most of the people who are begging, are not disable persons. They are able bodied persons. They have just create an outlook of beggars by wearing multicoloured patched clothes, wandering here and there. They can do something else to live but they find out this profession as an easy one. Moreover, the people have also fear of curs that can emanate from the mouths of, angered beggars, if they are not given the money. In contrast there are strict rules and punishment for begging. Because, begging is considered a crime in west. There are multiple factors leading towards begging, but awareness should be created among the people to stop them from misplaced charity. Because, it is ultimately creating a reason for poverty. Although, this begging has many modified forms but strict actions should be taken by government to stop the malice of begging at macro level.
