Causes of Begging in India

India has become a home of beggars. There is a massive number of beggars who are widely spread in holy cities. The passage discuss the lifestyle and effects of beggars. The increment in the number of beggars is linked with the religious Sentiments of people who desire for elysium for themselves in afterlife.

One other reason is bagger dress up themselves in such a way that people feel empathy and help them out. Many baggers have adopted bagging as a profession. The illiterate masses feel afraid from the scourge and ominous words of baggers. So, baggers have become richer than their counterparts. A social consciousness is arising among educated people relating to this evil of bagging.

They are learning from the West where bagging is prohibited. Masses should be learnt that charity to the fit people is not a saviour.

The state law will prove helpful in putting an end to bagging. Baggers
