

Date: _____

Essay topic

"Successful nations win without fighting"

Introduction: (Thesis statement)

Nations not resorting to fighting and avails other ways to resolve the issue are bound to be successful

Crunch paragraph

How successful nations win without fighting

- ① Through investments ~~like~~ (China through it's belt and road initiative) resulting in regional hegemony
- ② Through cyber technology, alternative to war
- ③ Through financial organisation's (IMF and World bank) having indirect influence on the borrowers.
- ④ Formation of alliances ~~like~~ (BRICS) to counter western dominance.
- ⑤ By diplomacy, post world war France and Germany forming European union.
- ⑥ Through economic powers (US sanction on Iran)
- ⑦ Through culture like K-pop or hollywood

2

Date: _____

- Effects of winning without fighting.
- ① less burden on the economy, etc
 - ② Positive social effects, more budget will be allocated for social development
 - ③ Stronger union through investments
 - ④ Projection of soft image

How can nations learn to win without fighting?

- ① Usage of diplomacy
- ② Through negotiations and finding common ground
- ③ Acknowledging the consequences of war
- ④ Joining multilateral organisations like UN.
- ⑤ Through trade & investment
- ⑥ Formation of alliances

Conclusion:

Date: _____

"Victory attained through violence is tantamount to defeat" as it is momentary" Mahatma Gandhi. It clearly shows that victory gained through war is bound to defeat as it is temporary, whereas victory gained through diplomacy, investments, culture or formation of alliances is long lasting. Nations not resorting to fight and avails other ways which do not involve violence are bound to be successful.

Successful nations win without fighting by investing capital or by influencing others by their culture or through tourism. Similarly they win through formation of alliances or by providing finance. Nations also win by diplomacy or by economic sanctions. Winning without has many effects, few among which are less burden on the economy and more budget for social development. It also causes formation of a stronger bond between the nations by trade and investments and etc also projects a soft image to the world. Nations can learn to win without fighting by usage of diplomacy, by joining multilateral organisations. Similarly they can also win by trade and investments and formation of alliances.

Date: _____

According to world bank report 147 countries are actively involved in china's belt and road initiative which accounts for 40% of the world's GDP. It shows how china is involving other nations to achieve its goal through trade, investment and diplomacy. china has won without lifting any arms.

Successful nations invest in other countries to achieve their goals. It is through investments and trade that they get their desired goals. china has taken over the region through direct investments in other countries. According to world bank report china has invested 67 billion dollars in 147 countries and is actively involved in ^{influencing} their policies. So by investing in other countries china has dominated over these nations.

~~With~~ In this way without any warfare china is dominating

Date: _____

the region

Successful nations also achieve their goals through usage of cyber technology. They spread and receive information through cyber technology. They infiltrate into other nations data base and acquire sensitive information.

According to BBC News Beijing based hackers have hacked many official email accounts of US government officials and has acquired sensitive data.

In this way successful nations use cyber technology to gain power instead of war.

Successful nations win by providing monetary assistance to other nations. They lend money to troubled economies and in return influence their policies in their favour. These nations work through organisations of different types. According to Dawn news a loan of 3 Billion Dollars will be given to Pakistan as an assistance to its troubled economy. But it is also meant to cover growing influence of China

In this way nations win
by influencing others through financial organisations.

Successful nations win through formation of alliances.

New alliances are made to counter the leaders. By formation of alliances they achieve their goals - According to UN report

BRICS a new alliance having GDP of 40% of the world's

total GDP is formed to achieve a common goal which is to counter the western dominance.

Thus successful nations get together and form alliances

to achieve their goals without the need of war.

Successful nations win by usage of diplomacy. It is through diplomacy that they can ~~be~~ ~~successfully~~ achieve their goals.

Post world war Germany and France, who were once foes

but now are closer than ever.
According to World Bank report

France has exports worth 7
Billion to Germany. This shows

Date: _____

The power of diplomacy and how nations become successful by usage of diplomacy. Successful nations win through sanctions. It is a better alternative than war. It is through sanctions that successful nations limit a threat. According to Dawn news US sanctions on Iran has forced them to halt their nuclear program. In this way US achieved its goal without any warfare. Thus successful nations win by putting sanctions on any threat ~~without~~ without causing war.

Among effects of winning without fighting one is that it causes less burden on the economy. War consumes much of the budget. Countries in active war use major chunk of its economy on army and arms. According to a world bank report Pakistan army consumes 4-10% of its total GDP. Thus nations can become successful by avoiding war. Winning without fighting has social effects. By avoiding warfare a good amount of budget can be used for development of social sectors. The budget used by army can be diverted into other sectors and utilized in social development. As reported by World Bank US has used 2.3 trillion dollars on its war in Afghanistan. This shows that by avoiding war US could have used this money on uplifting other sectors of the country. Thus winning without fight has many good effects on the social sector and its development. Winning through investments increases mutual cooperation and results in a stronger bond. By investing in other countries they have a shared interest which directly increases the understanding between them. Investments and Trade play a vital role in ~~strengthening~~ ^{strengthening} the bond between the countries. According to a report China Pakistan Economic Corridor has resulted in long term partnership between them. In this way winning by investments increases the bond between countries. Winning by usage of non violent policies projects a softer image to the world. Violent policies portrays a bad image to the world. Nations who use such ways are encouraged and appreciated globally. According to a UN report New Zealand is ranked as the top friendly countries in the world due to its non-violent policies. Thus nations using friendly policies to achieve their goals projects a soft image of the country to the world.

Date: _____

Date: _____

Nations can learn to win without fighting by usage of diplomacy. It is through diplomacy that difficult situations can be handled easily. They ^{can} get the desired effects through putting sanctions. According to Dawn news US through its sanctions on Iran has resulted in halting the nuclear projects of Iran. US has achieved their goals of slowing down Iran's nuclear project. Thus diplomacy can be very effective alternative to war.

Nations can learn to win without fighting by negotiations and finding common ground. Negotiations ^{through} can result in ~~winning~~ ~~words~~.

Date: _____

war can be avoided. It is through negotiations that nations can reach a consensus without lifting any arms. Negotiations help in peaceful resolution of disputes between nations. According to BBC news US and Iran has again formed ties with each other after rounds of negotiations. This way through negotiations nations can achieve their goals without causing war.

Nations by acknowledging the grave consequences of war can result in finding alternatives to war. By keeping in mind the drawbacks of war, other alternatives can be encouraged. When cost of war is considered, it results in finding non violent alternatives to war. Japan and US after world war realised the cost of war and became trading partners. Thus by acknowledging the consequences of war, nations can avail other alternatives which are non violent. Nations can learn to win without fighting by joining multilateral organisations. By joining such organisations, the nations can get timely mediation. These organisations play a role of mediator in areas of conflict. With the help of these organisations peace can be assured. According to UN report the UN has mediated in conflicts in Cambodia, El-Salvador, Namibia and many others. Thus being part of such organization can result in timely mediation and war can be avoided. In this way nations can learn to win without fighting by joining these multilateral organizations.

Date: _____

~~Countries~~ Countries can learn to win by investing in other countries. Investing in other countries is a better alternative, because it involves less capital and human loss. By investing in other countries nations can achieve their goals. According to BBC world China through its belt and road initiative has achieved its goal of expanding its power and economy. This should be learning to invest instead of war is a easy way to become successful Nations can learn to win by formation of alliances. Formation of alliances results in achieving collective benefits. It is a better alternative to acquire desired goals by force. According to Dr. M. J. Prasad a new alliance is formed to achieve goals of the regional countries thus by formation of alliances nations can acquire their goals without resorting to war.

Date: _____

Successful nations win by not resorting to violence but win by ways which are not violent and long lasting. Victory gained through violence is bound to defeat as it is momentary whereas victory gained through investments, diplomacy and using economic power is bound to last long. Similarly through this victory the nations economy becomes better and projects a soft image. Nations can learn to find alternatives to fighting by learning diplomacy, politics and with the help of multi lateral organisation. Thus successful nations choose alternatives to war.