

"PART 2"

Question #2.

"Precis"

~~The writer~~ Title: Disease of Begging In India

The writer has talked about increasing number of beggars in India, not just as the fulfilment of their needs but as a profession. ~~The writer~~ <sup>He</sup> is more concerned with the lifestyle of the beggars ~~than~~ and their impact on society than that of cause & conditions for begging. He believes that a major cause for increasing beggars is the religious psychic of Indians, who believe that if they give charity to beggars they will gain reward in hereafter. Beggars target such people who are desperate to go to heaven by giving charity so they wander in streets & and beg in different way at different times, such practices are seen in every area. Beggars have been taking advantage of the fear of curse in people & and they earn more than required. Beggars are more richer than the people actually in need. In western countries ~~the people are aware that if they will work hard they will fulfil their needs &~~ concept of begging is prohibited. Poverty, unemployment etc are major causes for increasing beggars but people should understand that there is no good (Punya) in giving charity to people who can work & and are healthy individuals. Law should be made and implemented to reduce such practice. Few beggars have modernized ways of begging & and making customers.
