Maggie asked Tom about his expenditure on rabbits. Tom replied that it is five shillings and six pence. Maggie told Tom that he has enough in his box upstairs and he will request his mother to give that to Tom. Tom disappointingly said that he does not need Maggie's money as he has enough money. Then Maggie told him that he wants ^{to buy} some more rabbits.

Q7 Translation

The ultimate responsibility of a student's life is his affiliation with teachers and books so that his life could be enlightened. Dedication and perseverance are required for this.

Any other external impact effecting it should be set aside. Otherwise, it would hamper the learning process of student and the precious time required for learning would be washed in just political interests and activities. Our country needs scholars more than politicians who impart Western and traditional, religious and worldly knowledge unthinkingly. Such interested people will learn if politics is separated from education.

It is perceived that our education system is of low standards ~~and comparison to west~~, up to some extent it is the result of our socio-political conditions. It would not be wrong to mention that mostly our teachers have failed to develop the taste of knowledge among students. But students should have the sense of responsibility themselves.

It is the lack of social consciousness that raises their number. In order to tackle this issue, learning from western policies such as Vagrancy act is significant. Indeed, socio-economic problems lead to begging but social consciousness is the topmost reason. Education to masses, decoding the myth of charity, highlighting the consequences of beggary could be helpful. Social science could be handy in this regard. Moreover, country's strict legislation and check on beggars can limit their size. However, begging is an evil that is modernized recently.
