

QUESTION # 04

Sentence Correction:

1. Sir Azhar Afzal has been reading a novel for five days.
2. The price of onions has come down.
3. He is sad that he is suffering from fever.
4. Sir Ali Shahab left for Karachi last week.
5. Faheem wore glasses when he was younger, but now he wears contact lenses.

QUESTION # 05 (PUNCTUATION)

a.

The Hodja always wanted to learn something new, and one day he had a sudden inspiration to learn how to play the lute. He approached a music teacher and asked him, "how much do you charge for private lute lessons?" "Three silver pieces for the first month, after that one silver piece a month." "Oh! great" exclaimed Hodja "then I will start with the second month."

b. PREPOSITION:

- a. He is addicted to smoking.
 b. He resigned from his job.
 c. I am waiting at the bus stop.
 d. I'd rather be single than in a bad relationship.
 e. He quarreled over a trifle.

QUESTION # 06

a. SENTENCES (WORDS USAGE)

1. Affection:

She shows high affection to her grand-parents.

Affectation: 1

Despite regular counselling, her behaviour does not incorporate moral affectations.

2. Dual

The dual implications of Artificial Intelligence intrigue authorities to impose binding legislature.

Duel:

The winner of duel between the offender and victim ^{was} proved innocent in pre-classical era.

3. Eminent.

Due to her fervent personality, she gets eminent popularity within her circle.

Imminent:

Imminent Economic default loomed large above Pakistan due to severe debt crisis.

4. Hue

The transparent sheet shows hues of colors.

Hew

Carpenter hewed large pieces of wood to make furniture.

5. Bow

She bowed in front of God to show gratitude.

Bow

Brown coloured bow does not suit his dressing.

B. PASSAGE

Maggie asked Tom that how much he had given for the rabbits.

Tom replied that five shillings and six pence.

Maggie told that she had got more than that in her box upstairs. She would ask mother to give it to him.

Tom asked that what for he did not want her money. He had got far more money.

Maggie replied that she wanted to buy some more rabbits.

Plz read the question and answer accordingly

QUESTION # 02 (PRECISE)

Beggary in India : social conundrum

"The Unchecked Growth of Beggary in India"

The size of beggars in India tremendously affects its reputation. The major concern related to beggary is to ponder about its existence and implications on the society. Author suggests that the Indians have more infatuation towards their religion, and their faith on Hindu ideologies pushes them to assist the needy in order to accomplish in next world. Furthermore, he says that beggary has become a familial legacy in India which is continued hierarchically over the years. Moreover, he believes that overlooking the physical fitness of able-bodied beggars due to fear of their curse plays pivotal role in their unchecked growth. Author expects the regulation of beggars comparable to the western countries, where it is considered heinous crime and beggars are obliged to be self-sufficient. However, Author believes despite many social ills contributing to its growth, begging has strong affiliation with social conscienceness. He determines that masses should be educated about the proper allocation of charity to the eligible candidates. Moreover, authorities should promulgate laws against beggary in every city of India. In last, Author assures that in order to live a prosperous life, begging should be eliminated from every domain of life, where they exploit the weaknesses of the victims.

Words in Passage - 595

Words in Precis - 196

QUESTION # 07 (TRANSLATION)

The obligatory essence of student's life is to be enriched from his teacher and curriculum, which could enlighten the dark stages of his life. Conciseness and consistency is needed to effectively perform this obligation. Every negative external factor should be curtailed, otherwise the upbringing of the student could be dangerously hampered. The time which he has to invest in seeking knowledge merely be wasted by infatuations to political activities. Our country needs those scholars and educators who have knowledge of eastern, western, religious and worldly education simultaneously. Indeed, they can only be established when political populace do not interfere in educational activities. It is generally said, that our educational standard is deteriorated in comparison to western countries. To some extent, it is the result of our economic conditions and it might not be wrong to say that our teachers fail to intensify the eagerness of seeking knowledge in students. But, the major contribution of responsibility should be accounted on the students.

QUESTION # 03 (COMPOSITION)

I. ANSWER # 01

According to the author, freedom from the busy world will become a scarcity in the future. The unrelenting inflow of data will create emptiness in future generations, for which they will crave for steadiness and peaceful thought.

II. ANSWER # 02

The ability which people have lost to the constant inflow of data is losing connection with the present. People lack ability to pay attention to small details and invest their energies to irrational domains. People lose capacity to slow down for a while and ponder on their souls.

III. ANSWER # 03

The author says "We have more and more way to communicate, but less and less to say" because the rise in communication techniques prevent mankind to realise about what he has to say. Humans are busy in communicating rather processing the information. This paradox pushes men to have less time for an effective thought process.

iv. ANSWER # 04

People are taking an active interest in old-age fads to have emotional and moral clarity, which cannot be found in busy world. They feel connected and attentive taking part in old-age activities such as yoga or meditation.

v. ANSWER # 05

Modern man is unable to empathize with others because he is indulged between the rift of external high-speed life and his inherently slow nature. This is why, he feels disconnected from his inmates and does not empathize for them.