

LMS ID = 29305.Rida aam-042

THE UNIVERSITY OF
LAHORE

ENGLISH PRECISE AND

Composition & II

Question:- (5A)

Punctuate the following Passage.

The Hodja always wanted to learn something new and wanted one day he had a sudden inspiration to learn how to play flute. He approached a music teacher and asked him, "how much do you charge for a private flute lessons?" "three silver pieces for the first month after that one silver piece a month" he said. "Oh!" great exclaimed Hodja "then I'll start with the second month".

Question 5B:

Rewrite the following after adding prepositions.

- 1- He quarreled for a tibble
- 2- We've put a lot of effort in this project.
- 3- He is addicted to smoking.
- 4- I am waiting at the bus stop.
- 5- I'd rather be single than in a bad relationship.

Question 4:-

Correct the following:-

- 1- The Price of onions has come down.
- 2- He wishes he were a prince.
- 3- Sir Azhar Afzar is sending a note from five days.
- 4- He said that he is suffering from fever.
- 5- Sir Ali left for Karachi last week.
Shahab.

Question 2:-

write Precie of the passage:

Title: Begging

Begging in India : a social Conundrum

In India begging has become a profession. There are many causes of this increasing number of beggars among them major are high level of hospitability Indian people have. Some of them charity for their own religious outlook. There is always a belief that helping other will lead to heavens. Some people help these begger because of the fear of being cursed. India must take steps

like other countries to improve ~~the~~ begging conditions like other countries where it is a crime. They say if you can not work don't eat. State must make some strict laws to stop this social network of begging. There are also some sensible and modernize beggars.

The requires length was equal to 240 words
It is too short

Question 7:-

-: Translation :-

A student's life duty is to acquire knowledge from teachers and books which can illuminate the dark paths of life for them.
This duty requires deep dedication and persewance. Every external influence that is contrary to it will have to be strictly kept away from the circle of teaching. Otherwise there is a danger that the student's training will remain incomplete and the time that should have been spent on acquiring knowledge will be sacrificed to the emergency interest of mere political activities. Our country needs scholars

This duty requires

Plz attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner and intellectuals more than political workers who are at the same time comprehensive of eastern sciences, western, religious sciences and worldly sciences. It is clear that such versatile people can only be found when political factors do not interfere in academic pursuit. It is said that our education standards are lower than those of western countries. To some extent this is a result of our economic conditions And perhaps it is not wrong to say that most of our teachers are unable to ignite the spark of curiosity in the heart of students. But the greater part of the responsibility much certainly fall on students themselves.

Question 6: (B)

Convert direct and Indirect Sentences:

Maggie asked Tom that how much money did he give for the rabbit. Tom replied that he gave five shilling and six pence.

Maggie further added that he had more than this in his box upstairs he'll ask his mother to give to them. Tom questioned that what for he did not want his money he had a lot of money. on that Maggie said that he wants to buy some more rabbits.

Question 6: (A)

1. Affectation:

The application written by manager was of great affectation.

Affection:-

His actions clearly shows his affection for her.

2. Hue:-

The sunset painted sky with hues of orange and purple.

Hew:-

The woodcutter hewed logs to build a cabin.

3. Shear:-

The steelworker uses shear to cut metal.

Sheer:-

The sheer curtains billowed in breeze.

4. Dual:-

The athlete has dual citizenship

Duel:-

The two cowboys had a duel at dawn over a woman.

Question 2:-

→ Comprehension &

Answer the Questions:-

1- The scarcity of ^{Scarcity of Freedom} future is nothing except the freedom children of tomorrow will crave for it. The machines will leave them empty and full at the same time.

2- Constant inflow of data had changed people mindset. People lost their emotional and moral clarity. Where machines paradox had made life quicker it also made it

TOTAL

immoral, dependent etc

Attempt with relevancy and with more focus

3- The author says this because we in real have no time to talk with anyone around us we are so busy in this rushy life that by having each other a touch away we are not able to communicate.

Plz break into short sentences

4-

