Maggie told that he wanted to ~~buy~~ buy some more rabbits.

Question : 7

Translate the following into English by keeping in view any figurative/idiomatic expression.

A student's duty is to learn from teachers and books which can illuminate the dark paths of life for them. To fulfil this obligation, uniformity and consistency are required. Every external factor which can be the Achilles' heel would be kept separate from teaching study, otherwise, the training of student would remain incomplete and the time which he had to spend in learning would be wasted / devoted in obstreperous interests of political activities. ~~Our country~~ ~~needs~~ Despite political activists, our country needs such ~~illuminations~~ and scholars who are ~~the~~ simultaneously the master of Eastern, Western, religious and secular education. It is obvious that such scholars can only be produced when political factors would not intervene in academic pursuits. It is said that our educational quality is lower than western countries. To some extent, it is the result of our economic situation. And perhaps it cannot be called into question that majority of our teachers remained unable to ignite the spark of knowledge among students' hearts. But, the rest of the responsibility should definitely be placed on the students themselves.

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner plz

Question : 3

Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

- 1) According to the author, what is likely to become a scarcity in the future?

Freedom is likely to become a scarcity in the future because of rapid increase in the use of technology. It is justifiable to say that ~~sumptuous~~ life is a function of scarcity - a scarcity of freedom which seems more vibrant with the passage of time.

- 2) What ability have people lost thanks to constant inflow of data?

~~Due to constant inflow~~ of data, people have lost the ability of thinking about themselves. They have completely forgotten that how little time they have. In this context, Marshal McLuhan already warned people, almost half a century ago, that when things come at you very fast, naturally you lose touch with yourself. Perpetually increasing news, photos, images and constant ringing of phone have made people lost their ability to think about themselves.

3) Why does the author say, "we have more and more ways to communicate, but less and less to say"?

The author says so because people have invented more ways to connect with people. As a result they are busy in rushing to meet so many deadlines that they hardly register. Consequently, people have lost most of the lifelines that were essential to them.

4) why are people taking an active interest in old-age fads?

People are now taking an active interest in old-age fads because in old-age fads, people were more attentive and emotional. They had stronger memory to concentrate and had improved cognition. This was the blessing of their meditation and spending some time in quiet rural settings.

5) why is modern man unable to empathise with others?

Modern man is unable to empathise with others because he spends his most of the time in front of the screen communicating and connecting with others. He does not have any feelings for others as the technology did not show him emotional and moral clarity. Modern man is not taught by the constant inflow of data to think deeply. Therefore, he lost his emotions.

Question: 2

Make a precis of the following passage and suggest a suitable title.

Title:

Beggary in India: a social conundrum

~~Beggary: Causes and Way forward~~

In India ~~Have~~ number of beggars has increased. It has become a profession. The increment in their numbers has been witnessed by every foreigner who visits India. One of the main causes of increase of these beggars is the faith of Indians which has ~~been~~ taught to them by Puranas and Shastras that ~~gives~~ charity to beggars ~~ensures~~ moksha in the ~~next~~ world. As a result, Indians became more selfless. Beggars take advantage of this faith and look for such people who are anxious to go to heaven by giving charity. There are some beggars which are fit and healthy, yet they dressed themselves to look poor and awful. People help them in a fear of curse from beggars. As a result, majority of beggars are affluent. There should be some reforms to lessen the population of these beggars. By reforming society and teaching them that there is no glory of Punya in giving charity to able-bodied persons. Such people must be warned that if they will not work, they will not eat.
