

Name = Nida Khan

Question 4.

- b) Salma took her driving test five times so far without success, but she didn't give up.
- d) ^{Amar} Sir Afzal has been reading a novel for five days.
- f) He said that he was suffering from fever.
- g) Sir Ali Shahab left for Karachi last week.
- h) He wishes to be a prince.

Question 5 B

- (ii) to
- (iii) from
- (iv) for
- (vi) than
- (viii) to 4

Write in complete sentences form plz

Questions 5 A

The Hodga always wanted to learn something new. One day he had a sudden inspiration to learn how to play the lute. He approached a music teacher and asked him, "How much do you charge for private lute lessons?" "Three silver pieces for the first month after that one silver piece a month." "Oh! Great," exclaimed Hodga, "then I'll start with the second month."

Question 2.

Title: ~~Professional Begging; causes and way forward.~~

~~Begging is becoming a profession in~~ Begging in India: a social conundrum

India and the number of beggars is continuously increasing. The foreigners have declared the pilgrimage cities of India as cities of beggars. There are many causes of increasing beggary.

Most of the Indians possess religious outlook and believe that giving charity ensures Moksha in the next world. Most beggars are professionals and able bodied. They dressed up in certain hours for begging. The people fear from their curses and give them money. Infact, many beggars are richer than poor. Serious efforts are needed to solve this problem. Many western countries have banned begging and some has warned the people that those who don't work shall have nothing to eat. Although poverty, unemployment and overpopulation are the causes of poverty but it has deep roots in the social consciousness. Masses should be educated that charity to the non-deserving and able-bodied increases laziness and leads to chronic poverty. The government should make strict laws and implement these laws + check their number especially in the Holy cities. Begging in any form is an evil and should be eradicated from the society.

Question 2.

- ① Freedom is likely to become scarcity in near future. An average person spends at least eight and a half hours a day in front of screen so, in future children will crave for freedom from all the machines, videos and headlines.

in order to get some time for themselves and to think.

② The people have lost ability to get in touch with ~~themselves~~ ^{themselves} due to constant inflow of data. The people don't have time to think. The life is so fast that it makes people cut from their lives and family.

③ The author says, We have more and more ways to communicate, but less and less to say because ~~we~~ ^{the people} are so busy in communication and meeting their deadlines that they don't have time to say something, to express their feelings verbally. They don't have time to think how little time they have.

④ People are taking active interest in old age fads like yoga or meditation or Tai chi, so as to connect them with wisdom of old age. It has been shown that spending more time in quiet natural environment improves memory and cognition. It makes people calmer and sharper. The modern man is unable to empathize with others because of busy and speedy life. Modern man has no time to think deeply or empathize with others as these are dependent upon the neural processes that are inherently slow and life is fast.

Q1
 It is a duty of a student to get benefit from teacher's life and books which enlighten the darkness of life. Devotion and consistency is required to fulfill this duty. It must be kept free from contrary external influence. Otherwise, there will be a threat that the student's training will be incomplete and the time to study books will be served in political activities. Instead of political workers, our country needs those intellectuals

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner

who are full of having knowledge of western, eastern and religious subjects and worldly affairs. These intellectuals are only created when there is a political influence in education. A low level of

It is said that our education standard is lower than western countries. It is due to the economic factors to a large extent. This is also true that our many teachers are not able to develop a quest for education. But greater responsibility lies on the students.

Q6 B

Maggie asked Tom how much money
he had given for the rabbits.

Tom replied that five shillings and six pence. Maggie asked Tom that she thought she had got more than that in her box upstairs. She would ask mother to give it to him.

Tom rep asked her the reason and told her that he did not want her money. He had got far more money. Maggie said that she wanted to get some more rabbits.

