Q.7

Urdu Translation into English

A student duty is to be in contact with his books and his teachers. That enlighten the dark path of his life. This duty needs concentration and consistency. Anything which deviate him from his duty should be kept aside. otherwise, the student purpose would remain unfulfill. As much time he is supposed to spend on his studies, that time he spends on political activities. Our country needs intellectuals more than the political workers. Who at a time possess worldly knowledge, religious knowledge and western knowledge as well. As like people will be created when the politicians do not interfere in the education. It is said that western education is far better
