

PART II

Q2] Make a precis of the following passage and suggest a suitable title.

Begging in India: a social conundrum

Title: ~~The professional beggars exploit the rights of poor.~~

In India begging ~~has become a profession~~ and increasing in number continuously. The city of pilgrimage turns into the city of beggars and of dust. The behaviour of Indians towards begging are based on religious rituals as charity. And this is the root cause of through which the number of beggars increase. The beggars dressed-up in such a manner to look like beggars and then knocking the doors for begging and through this way, the professional beggars exploit the rights of poor. There are other causes that increases towards begging such as poverty, unemployment and increasing population than the faith of charity. Most of it people don't go against it because of religious but the educated Indian are warned about it. how

It is too short.

Plz ensure it one third of original passage to root out the evil of begging. The state and makes will made strict laws to against beggars otherwise it will spread all over the India and exploit the rights of deserving one:

At least two hundred of passage

Q3] Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Q1: According to the author, what is like to become a scarcity in the future?

Ans: According to the author, freedom become a scarcity in the future. Because the average person spends eight hours on screen and received 75 text message. so this will author said that the children of tomorrow will crave nothing more than freedom.

Q2] what ability have people lost thanks to the constant inflow of data?

Ans:

The ability have people lost to the constant inflow of data is losing yourself.

As the Marshall McLuhan warned "when things come at you very fast, naturally you lose touch with yourself."

Q3] why does author say "we have more and more ways to communicate, but less and less to say"?

Ans:

The author says "we have more and more ways to communicate, but less and less to say" it means we get a lot that brightens the life but fail to use it, and how to turn into information that helps us.

Q4] why are people taking an active interest in old-age pads?

Ans:

The people are taking more interest in old age fads such as yoga and meditation because they want to improve memory, cognitive cognition and want to exhibit greater attentiveness.

Q5] Why is modern man unable to empathise with others?

Ans:

The modern man is unable to empathise with others because empathy, as well as, deep thought, depends on neural processes that are inherently slow. In the very ones our high-speed lives have little time for.

Q6] Correct any Five of the following.

(a) when Fahren was young he had been wearing glasses but now he had contact lenses.

(b) Mr. Ashar Afzal is read had been reading a novel for five days.

(c) The price of Onions has come down.

(d) He said, he is suffering from fever.

(c) He wishes he were a Prince.

Q5 (A) Punctuate the following passage.

The Hodja always wanted to learn something new and one day he had sudden inspiration, to learn how to play the lute. He approached a music teacher and asked him, "how much do you charge for private lute lessons?" He replied, "three silver pieces for the first month after that one silver piece a month." Oh great, exclaimed Hodja, "I'll start with the second month."

Write direct statement into quotation form

B: Re-write the following sentences (only five) after filling the blanks with appropriate Preposition.

- (i) He is addicted of smoking.
- (ii) He resign his job.
- (iii) I am waiting at bus stop.
- (iv) He quarrelled with a trifle.
- (v) We have put a lot of effort to his project.