Q3. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Answer #1: The main idea of the Ferrari's quote is that what matters the most in any competition is who stands first. People only remember the person and admire the person who takes the first place. The Yusuf Dikec's story has challenge the quote of Ferrari. He proved that impressive and consistent performance matters more than who takes the first place. Because of his extraordinary performing skills, he has received more appreciation than the one who topped. In this way, Yusuf Dikec's story challenges Ferrasi's quote.

Answer #2: Yusuf Dikec became an iconic figure in sport shooting because of his exceptional and consistent performances. Several factors have played a role in making him a champion. First and foremost reason for his extraordinary reputation is his sportsmanship and humility. Then, his outstanding skills and determination have played a major role. Furthermore, both people and media have highlighted his struggles of journey and achievements. These factors collectively make him an iconic figure in sport shooting.

Answer #03: Some There are some factors that contribute to Dikec's second or third-place finishes being more celebrated than some first-place wins. Firstly, Dikec has performed extraordinarily in some competition. He has unleashed his unmatched skills and passion in different competitions. Secondly, the support on part of public and social media has helped him to reach to the peak of reputation. His journey struggles and achievements highlighted on media have played a key role in making him an icon. Thus, these two factors contribute to Dietrich's second or third place finishes more celebrated than some first place wins.

Answer #04: Media greatly influences public perception of Dietrich's achievements. The media has highlighted different important events of his career that attract the attention of the public. The stories about how he started his career, what sort of challenges he came across during his journey, how did he manage to deal with these hardships, how much dedicated and passionate he has been throughout the journey - all these

Q 2 : Title: Polarisation: Threat to Democracy / Democracy
in Hot Waters

Elections are happening in many countries this year. However, the polarisation agendas of misinformation and disinformation may make survival of democracy hard. Different forms of propagandas might influence the voter's choice and anti-democratic activists might disturb the electoral process. This menace can be controlled through different ways only if the problem is taken seriously and spread of misinformation is controlled by upholding the democratic values.
