Title: Threat to Democracy and its Counter Mechanisms

Globally four billion voters casted in elections this year with a threat over the head of democracy due to misinformation leading to polarization and lack of trust in elections, through conventional and modern methods its spread. Anti-democratic agents want to sabotage it, like in Spain misinformation was spread of terrorist attacks by copying a Government website. Counter mechanisms like educating public, countering misleading information with evidences exist but requires 'addressing by scholars of problems seriousness, classifying <sup>information</sup> as false' is warranted and democratic principles and freedom to express is upholding and assured.

Yusuf's career teaching on true success in sports

Yusuf's career teaches us that you do not need to be at the top only then you will be successful. You need to be unique in your strategy. You should be consistent and have true sportsmanship and a humble attitude all this contributes towards your unprecedented success despite not being on top on the score table. It also teaches us that every individual's story is unique and everyone has gone through his own struggles so one cannot measure everyone's success based on a single uniform criteria. Sometimes you are lucky and you get media coverage and recognition but believing in yourself and stay humble and make impressive performances over a long run period will truly lead you towards success. Success is not overnight, it takes time and tests your patience and dedication.
