Q3: Answers:

(i) Enzo Ferrari's quote, "No one remembers who took second place," emphasizes that in competitive sports, winning is most important and memorable achievement. Yusuf Dikec story challenges this notion by demonstrating that despite not always finishing in first place, his consistent performance,

Sportsmanship and dedication have made his second and third place finishes more memorable and celebrated than some victories.

(ii) Yusuf Dikec became an iconic figure in sport shooting not because of his first-place wins, but due to his impressive and consistent performances. His dedication, skill and sportsmanship, along with his ability to handle both victory and defeat with grace, earned him respect and admiration from peers and fans, making him a beloved figure in the sport.

(iii) The following two factors contribute to Dikec's second or third-place finishes being more celebrated than some first place wins: Firstly, Dikec's sportsmanship and humility have made him a beloved figure in sport. His ability to handle both victory and defeat with grace. Secondly, his near-wins, such as his notable comeback during a world championship, have been memorable due to his extraordinary skill and perseverance.

(iv) The media influences public perception by highlighting Dikec's journey, challenges, and dedication to the sport. Stories about his career and the respect he has garnered often overshadow the focus on who actually finished first, thereby elevating the significance of his second and third-place finishes.

(v) Yusuf Dikec's career teaches us that true success in sports is not solely measured by winning titles but also by the respect and admiration earned through dedication, skills, and sportsmanship. His career illustrates that the journey and the personal qualities of an athlete can have a lasting impact beyond just the victories.
