Hajra AKhter Batch # 65

Q2: Make a precis of following passage and suggest a suitable title.

Ans. Nearly four billion people ^{will} vote this year, but false information complicates their choices and reduces trust in the election process. Concerns about election misinformation are justified given its potential to influence voters through harmful propaganda, false claims and fake media - Anti-democratic groups might disrupt elections, as seen in Spain with fake terrorist threats. To combat misinformation, we need public education, fact based campaigns, and must ensure actions respect democratic values and free speech.
