Q.no. 2

Misleading Information and Electoral Process

Four billion people are taking part in this year's elections. The danger to democratic process via misinformation exists. This leads to mistrust and biasness among voters. A concerning influence on the voters is posed by propaganda and AI deepfakes. Multiple ways exist where masses are protected from misinformation. Before implying these methods, three issues are addressed.

The genuineness of the problem is identified, classifying the viral information as false and ensuring citizens that steps taken against misleading information are democratic and guarantees the right to expressing one's views.

Ans. 1

Enzo Ferrari, the manufacturer of the famous car company - Ferrari, conveyed the competitive nature of sports and the dedication towards securing the first place through his famous quote, "No one remembers who took second place." The basic idea of the quote is that a sportsman must compete hard enough to stand first in a race, as no one pays attention to the second person in a race. However, this concept of Enzo Ferrari was busted by the Turkish shooter Yusuf Dikec in the Olympics 2024. He secured a silver medal in the games and got worldwide recognition. His consistent and praise-worthy performance highlighted his position more than the ones who were ahead of him. This ^{questioned} ~~proved~~ the authenticity of Enzo Ferrari's famous quote.

Ans. 2

Yusuf Dikec earned a peculiar position in sports even without securing first position. His brilliant sportsmanship is the reason behind this. His dedication and skill made him rise to the heights of fame. His humble nature was liked by many. He was a master of handling both the victory and defeat professionally. This set the bar high for him and became an iconic name in the sports.

Ans. 3

Yusuf Dikec's near-wins made him a celebrity mainly because of ^{his} display of sportsmanship and humble nature and secondly because of his immense skills and determination. These factors made Yusuf Dikec stand tall among his competitors and his second and third place wins proved lucky for him.

Ans 4.

Media highlighted Dikec's achievement in a manner that made people forget who secured the first position holder. His journey, challenges and dedication to the sports left a significant mark on people's hearts.

Ans. 5.

Yusuf Dikec's story has been inspirational in many ways. It focuses on the true sportsmanship. His story tells that winning after the first place is not a true sport spirit. It is, instead, one's skills and dedication along with the love and respect gathered along the way. His story is proof that second place, too, can make history.

Q.no. 7

Where Pakistan is going through a tensesd situation, Arshad Nadeem came as a ray of hope for Pakistanis. In such difficult situation, Pakistani citizens forgot their problems and became a part of Arshad Nadeem's gold medal celebrations. Indian athlete Neeraj Chopra's mother expressed joy on Arshad Nadeem's success and said that- this silver medal is like gold to us and whoever won the gold is also our son. From where has this shining bright star come and took over the whole world and made a home in everyone's hearts. No doubt, there is any lack of talent in our country.
