

Part II

Question 5 (A)

A lioness and a vixen were talking about their young, ~~of~~ and saying how healthy and well grown they were. What coats they had, and how they were the image of their parents. "My litter of cubs is a joy to see", said the fox and then she added rather maliciously, "I notice you never have more than one". "No!" said the lioness grimly, but that one's a lion.

(B)

- i) Ruth applied in a bank for a loan.
- ii) She died of starvation.
- ~~iii) I rowed the boat~~
- iii) You can go if you have done your homework.
- iv) We all sat at the dinner table.
- v) We saw a movie at the theatre.

Question # 04

iii) The bag was so heavy that I could hardly lift it.

viii) Shahab doesn't want to study, nor does he want a job.

iv) She advised me never to point my finger at anyone.

vi) None of the two applicants had ^{the} suitable qualification.

Question # 07

Arshad Nadeem has emerged as a hope for Pakistanis at a point where Pakistan is going through such a critical time. In the critical time Pakistanis have joined him in his celebration/happiness of winning a gold medal despite of their hardships. The mother of Neeraj Chopra, an Indian athlete, has expressed happiness on Arshad Nadeem's success/win and said that silver is also like gold for us, and the one who won gold is also our son. This shining star has emerged out of no where and overshadowed world and captured people's heart. Indeed, Pakistan there is no less talent in Pakistan.

Question # 06 (B)

Klaus asked Sarah to look at Ryan and wink so that he can ~~notice~~ notice them to which Sarah told him that it won't work because he is too ^{far} away from them. Klaus tried to convince her saying he wasn't. Sarah became confuse, asked to confirm if he meant to say wave instead of wink and said if the word wink mean wave in German.

Question # 03

3) Factors that contributed to his second or third place finishes being more celebrating as of first place winners are:

Firstly his sportsmanship and humility that made him a beloved figure in sport.

Secondly, his performances have been marked by extraordinary skills and determination, which made his near wins memorable.

2) It was not his numerous wins but it actually was his impressive and consistent performances that overshadowed those who finished at first places.

4) Media has influenced public by highlighting/broadcasting Yusuf Dikeç's achievement, telling stories of his journey, challenges and his dedication to the sports. This overshadowed those who actually won at first places.

5) Yusuf Dikeç's career teaches us about winning the titles but it is actually about the person that leaves a lasting and impressive image. Second place wins can sometimes be more ~~more~~ memorable than first. Success is not just victories but also it's the respect earned.

1. Enzo Ferrari's quote "No one remembers who took second place" states the fact competitive nature of sports and says that main focus in sports is on the one's who wins and only they are remembered. But Yousuf Dikec's story challenges it by showing that despite of being second or third place winner he became an iconic figure due to his impressive and consistent performances.

Question # 2

Precis

Approximately four billion people will vote this year. But there is danger/challenge to democratic integrity and it is warranted that may cause distrust for electoral processes. The most concerns are being spread by media. Anti-democracies can directly attack poll stations as ~~as~~ ⁱⁿ Spain.

Strategies to overcome this requires to know the extent of concern, proving the information false and assuring to ~~be used~~ use democratic principles.

Title

Electoral integrity: Threats and Solutions