main idea of Enzo Ferrari quote and how does Yusuf Dikec's story challenge it.

Enzo Ferrari quote emphasized the importance of position only in a competition. His view holds that being second or third is not more than being a failure, and the world only remembers those who stood first on podium. But the story of Yusuf Dikec portrays the opposite. Although being at second place his achievement was celebrated more than the one who finished ahead of him. His story tells us that it's not the position that matters alone but it's the impressive and consistent sportsmanship, respect and admiration of people and modest and graceful balance between victory and defeat made him the most beloved figure in sport. It was always the resilience and the respect and admiration along the journey mattered.

to leave a lasting impact on the world instead of "just" standing at the top of podium.

How did Yusuf Dikec became an iconic figure in sport shooting.

Yusuf Dikec - an iconic figure in sport shooting not only defied the famous words of Enzo Ferrari that it's only the position that matters in the competition but also gained a lot of admiration and respect of the world even when he stood at a second place. He played the game without even using fancy gadgets and shoot his shot with one hand in his pocket. All this shows the outstanding skill and dedication, his persistent and resilient efforts throughout his life journey and his modest yet graceful attitude earned him with respect and love from all over the world, showing that is not the title or the label earned, matters alone sometimes its the person behind it leave a long lasting impact and a special place in the hearts of millions.

Problems in True Electoral Processes -
A Threat to Democratic Integrity.

DATE: / /

With the emergence of this years new major election news thread has emerged to the democratic integrity leaving 4 billion people in a great confusion. Increase in the false information during this time can shake the two pillars of democracy: factual or reliable information and the groomed and well informed people. This misleading information can not only effect the people but in the electoral process but will also create biased opinions at multiple stance. Peoples trust in the electoral process is widely breached through misleading propaganda wrongful characterizing the candidates, using AI for wrong portrayal of information or through the wrongful influence of anti democratic agents. Such as in Spain where clone websites copying governments official website during the time of election, then falsely blaming the terrorists. Misinformation spread is a very serious threat and
