

MOCK EXAM : CES-2025

ENGLISH - (PRECIS AND COMPOSITION)

PART: II

Q2. Make a precis of the following passage and suggest a suitable title.

"Misinformation: A threat to democracy"

Although a large number of people could cast their vote this year, but the misinformation and disinformation dominate the threats to democratic integrity. As the efficiency of democracy is due to the accurate information and the aware citizens. The election related misinformation lead to the conflict of opinions and lack of trust in ~~trust~~ in election commission, which is concerning. Also the voters are influenced in a malign way through propagandas and false claims against the voters, as well as through AI-generated false images. Anti-democratic agents also attack election processes as ^{happened} in the case of Spain, July, last year. Many methods are used to prevent misinformations like educational and awareness programs, to counter misleading informations.

This can be achieved through identifying the problem's severity, classifying the false information and conformity to democratic principles against the misinformation.

Q3. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Questions:

1. What is the main idea of Enzo Ferrari's quote and how does Yusuf Dike's story challenge it?

Ans. The main idea of Enzo Ferrari's quote is that a person who wins the match is always remembered by the people while the one who comes second does not have any value. However, Yusuf Dike's life story challenges this quote as he was a Turkish sport shooter, who never got first-place throughout his sport career, but through his impressive performances, has been very famous, and has got more popularity than those who got first-place.

ANS

Yusuf Diken's being an iconic figure in sport shooting is, due to his joining the sport shooting at a young age and then gaining success through his dedicated and skilled performances. Also his participation in different international competitions added to his reputation, by earning him medals and accolades.

3.

ANS

The first factor which contributes to Dike's second and third-place finishes being more celebrated than the first-place win, is his humility and being a real sportsman. As he handles losses with grace which makes him a role model for others to be followed. While the second contributing factor is his out-standing performances, superb skill and extraordinary determination during the competition. His performances during the sports are more celebrated than the opponent's first-place win.

4.

Ans: Diken's achievements and performances have always been highlighted by the media. So, media has played a crucial role in portraying his ~~through~~ true image through the stories about his life challenges, journey and his dedication to the sport. He has always overshadowed the person who actually wins the first-place. This credit also goes to the media.

5.

Ans Yusuf Diken's career teaches us about the nature of success in sports, by illustrating that it is not always the title or success which has a lasting impact but the person, his performances, challenges and his journey, which are always remembered. and which have a never ending impacts on the followers and fans.
