This year, In spite of 'Judge' turnout of voters in various elections there has been persistent threat of misinformation to democratic norms. Such misinformation, have to potential to maximize the polarization. The usage of conventional and unconventional means of misinformation have strongly impacted the voters. Anti-democratic forces also harm the process of fair elections. As in case of Spanish elections, the hebbels falsely posed threat of terrorist attacks during election day. Certain measures including education, and curbing of misinformation through evidence can be employed but these depend on principles of recognizing, accepting problems and assuring prevention to uphold democracy.

Title: Menace of Misinformation to Election Process.
