Q.2. Make a precis of the following passage and suggest a suitable title?

Precis Writing.

The passage highlights the threat of misinformation and disinformation to democratic integrity in the context of major elections, where around four billion people will cast their votes. It emphasizes the need of evidence-based discourse and informed citizens to maintain effective democracy. The author expresses concern about the potential for false information to boost polarization and undermine trust in electoral processes, citing examples of malign influence, propaganda, and AI-generated deep fakes. In Spain in July seen that the Anti-democratic agents might also attack the electoral process directly. Regional Government of Madrid's website just before an election to falsely claim that terrorists planned to attack polling stations. To address the issue, mechanisms such as educational interventions and evidence based campaigns are proposed but their deployment requires recognition of the problem's seriousness and ensuring that interventions uphold democratic principles like freedom of expression.
