4) The main idea of the quote of Enzo Ferrari's is that it emphasizes only the top winners and rejects the second and third winners. He says that everyone only recalls the first position holder and forget the rest. However, the story of Yusuf Dikee, a Turkish sport shooter challenges the idea of Ferrari's quote. Because, the second and third positions of Ferrari also being celebrated by his fans in an impressive manner. Even though he got famous from his first win, but his fans family celebrated ~~ill~~ his wins throughout his life. So, it implies winning of places does not matter, but the person's nature and journey matters.

- 2) Yusuf Dikee became an iconic figure because of his continuous struggles and overwhelming performances. He had won numerous awards through-out his journey. Similarly, his sweet and praiseworthy nature also adds value in his prominent personality. He is so humble and beautiful man. He has the ability to lead both ups and downs with grace. His persistency and commitment made him a unique player. As a whole, all these attributes made a unique figure and sportsman.

3) Firstly, his humble and sportsmanship attributes attracts his fans to celebrate his second or third place wins. He is also brave enough to deal every situation with grace attracts his fans.

Secondly, Dikee has unique skill to cover-up the highs and lows in ^{the} competition. He never loses hope during/in competition. This unique attribute really makes unique from others and depicts the true spirit of sportsmanship.

4) The media narratives while publicizing his achievements also shapes the public view about Dikee. Media portrays his continuous struggles in a rewarding manner that influences his fans and even encourages other people to become an iconic figure like him.

- 5) Yusuf Dikee's nature teaches us that nothing is impossible for a man, if a man wants to achieve his goals. He can easily achieve it, if he has will, power and determination. Dikee proves the idea ~~the~~ of the quote that "man makes his own fate". Man even can revolutionise the world with consistency and perseverance. Man needs not to give up at any cost. He must learn from his failures and celebrate his successes ~~the~~ overwhelmingly.
