Misinformation: A threat to Democracy

Q2. Threat to democratic process of a country

Will: This year, around four billion people ^{voted} in elections. But, threat to democratic process remains large. A fair democracy is based on evidence based information. This election based misinformation leads to uncertainty in electoral process. Through different types of propaganda, voters are put under influence. Electoral process is also threatened by anti-democratic agents. Public can be protected against misinformation through education and campaigns. However, implementation of these mechanisms will be ensured when the problem is recognised, acceptance of generated information as false is warranted and by intervening with democratic principles ensuring these efforts respect democratic principles and freedom of expression.

1. The main idea of Enzo Ferrari's quote is that world always remembers the one winning at first place and no one remembers the 2nd one.

2. However, Yusuf Dikec challenges it in a way that he takes 2nd or 3rd place but has become an important player because of his attitude and consistency in sport.

2. Yusuf Dikec, a Turkish sport shooter, became an important and iconic figure in sport because of his skill and consistency in sport. He started his journey at a young age and got recognised at an early age.

Also, he rejects the notion of being always in the first place but what matters for him is the admiration he gets.

3. Several factors contribute in why Dikec is always loved despite being in 2nd or 3rd place. Firstly, Dikec holds a realistic approach and responds to both winning and defeat with a balanced approach. Secondly, extraordinary skill and determination is seen in his performances, differentiating him from others

4. Media plays an important role in shaping people's perception. Hence media and public have played a significant role in putting Duce in limelight. Media displays stories of his achievements, ups and downs and his determination towards sport which clearly shows who is on the top in public's heart.

5. Yusuf D'Ke's journey teaches such valuable lesson that success is not always winning the top position, it can be 2nd or 3rd. But what matters most is the love and respect gained from public which is evident from his journey.

Klaus and Sarah were walking in a park. Suddenly, Klaus said to Sara to look at the other side as Ryan was there and to wink at him so he can see them. Sarah replied to Klaus by saying that wink will go wasted as Ryan was so far and cannot notice them. He isn't so far away just have a look, said Klaus. To which Sarah responded as if he meant wave and not wink and questioned that if "wink" meant "wave" in German.

Klaus pointed out Ryan in the distance and suggested that Sarah should wink at him so he would notice them.
