Yusuf Dikec's quote advocates for first position in winning.

But Yusuf Dikec's story challenges it by claiming that second place can sometimes be more memorable than first if you have earned respect and admiration along the way.

Dikec has become an iconic figure not because of his first place win but due

Write atleast 2-3 sentences to his impressive and consistent performances that have often overshadowed those who finished ahead of him.

Firstly, Dikec's sportsmanship and humility have contributed to more celebrate his second or third place finishes than victorious one. Secondly, his performances have often been marked by extraordinary skill and determination.

Media has key role in public perception of Dikec's achievements. It has showed his journey, challenges and dedication to sports more than who topped first place winner.

Yusuf Dikec's career teaches us about pragmatic sense of success which not involves only victories but also respect and admiration along the way. It is not title but the journey and person way of handling that leaves an impact.
