3) The main idea of Enzo ferrari's quote is that in sports no body remembers who was second, the one on the first is remembered forever. Even though his idea has a valid point that is what happens in most sports. But Yusuf Dike's story challenges him by the fact that, even the second place person can be remembered forever, by their struggles, and victories that they achieved on the way. This is how Enzo ferrari's quote is challenged by Yusuf Dike's story.

2) Yusuf Dickec became an iconic sport shooting figure because of his dedicated, impressive, and steady performance. He started his shooting career very early in his life. With time he gained enormous recognition not just because of the medals in those games, but, because of the respect and admiration he received from his peers and fans. This is what makes Yusuf Dickec an iconic figure in sports.

3) The 2 factors that contributed to Yusuf second or third place finishes ^{being} more celebrated than some first-place wins are this determination and his humility, towards the game. For the first factor, it is his way to handle both his victory and defeat during the game that is cherished by his fans. Whereas, for the second factor, it is his extraordinary skill and the way he comeback in the competition. These are the major factors due to which he is loved and praised by his fellows, fans and everyone who watches him.

4) The media influence - the public perception of Dikec's achievements by highlighting his story. Media highlights his story as someone who cherish every position he gets. ^{As} Even sometimes his dedication and his perseverance towards his game, led him to gain more praise by fans than the ones who actually won first. This is how media influence his public appearance.

5) Yusuf Dikec's career teaches us ^{Avoid cutting} ~~about~~ that the true essence of success in sports is that the way you play it is important than lose or win. It is the determination, consistency and valour that is required to rise from where you fell. The journey of one is more important than the success itself. This is what Yusuf Dikec's career teaches us about the true essence of success in sports.
