“Safeguarding Democracy : Combating Misinformation in Elections”

Misinformation: A Threat to Democracy

06/20

Précis:

With around 4 billion people voting in major election this year, there is significant concern over the impact of misinformation and disinformation on democratic integrity. Wrong information, including propaganda, ~~substantiated~~ false claims ~~claims~~, and AI-generated deepfakes, threaten to polarize societies and undermine societies trust in electoral processes. Malicious actors may even directly attack the electoral system, as seen in Spain last year. While mechanisms to combat misinformation exist, they must be implemented carefully, ensuring the problem is recognized, false information is identified, and democratic principles are upheld.

Q.3

05/20

Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Questions:

1. What is the main idea of Enzo Ferrari's quote, and how does Yusuf Dikeç's story challenge it?

The main idea of Enzo Ferrari's quote "No one remembers who took second place" is that it emphasizes the competitive nature of sports and focus on winning. However, Yusuf Dikeç's story challenges this notion by showing that consistent performance, sportsmanship, and admiration of colleagues and fans can make someone memorable, even without always taking first place.

Day: _____

3. Describe two factors that contribute to Dikey's second or third place finishes being more celebrated than some first-place wins.

→ Sportsmanship and Humility: Dikey's gracious behaviour in both winning and losing has made him a beloved figure, making his near-wins more celebrated.

Write in single passage

→ Memorable Performances: His extraordinary skill and determination, such as his impressive comeback during a world championship event, have made his second or third-place finishes memorable events.

4. How does the media influence public perception of Dikey's achievements?

The media and public have played a significant role in highlighting Dikey's achievements. Stories about his journey, challenges, and dedication to the sport have often overshadowed the narrative of who actually stood on the top podium.
