(i)

The main idea of Enzo Ferrari's quote is that greatness can be only achieved through competitive nature of sports and focus on winning. While the story of Yusuf Dikee challenges it by suggesting that the greatness lies in respect and admiration not in winning. The main focus of Enzo Ferrari is on securing first place that brings admiration and greatness. On the contrary, the story of Yusuf Dikee challenges it by proving that the greatness lies in achieving respect. Although, he has finished in second and third place, he was able to achieve greatness.

Therefore, in conclusion, the primary focus of Ferrari is on gathering greatness with first place in sports. In reaction to this, the story of Yusuf Dikee emphasizes on achieving greatness through respect and admiration.

(ii)

Yusuf Dikee

became an iconic figure because of his unmatched qualities. His qualities include extra-ordinary skills, spirit of sportsmanship, and display of perseverance. Moreover, his unbelievable comeback in games and interesting near-wins have left a deep impact on people. Additionally, the significant role of media and public is of paramount importance in making Dikee an iconic figure. Apart from this, his self-confidence and ability to handle crucial moments have earned him a great respect. On the whole, all these qualities have made him an iconic figure

03

(iii)

The two factors that contribute to Dikey's second or third place finishes being more celebrated than first-place wins are his knowledge of the game and unmatched qualities. Firstly, he has full idea of the game. He remains fully aware how to handle victory and defeat, how to make a come back during a tense situation, and how to make near-win more interesting. Secondly, his qualities have earned him a huge respect and contributed to his success. These include humility, sportsmanship, and perseverance. Consequently, these factors contribute in making his second or third place wins more interesting
