Q 1- What is the main idea of Enzo Ferrari's quote and how does Yusuf Dikeç's story challenge it?

Enzo Ferrari's quote "No one remembers who took second place", emphasizes that in this world, the one who stands at first is most celebrated, and no importance is given to the rest of the candidates. But Yusuf Dikeç has challenged this notion demonstrating that you can earn respect and admiration even though you do not stand at first. He has proved that impressive and consistent performances, even if they result in second or third position can be more memorable.

Q 2- How did Yusuf Dikeç become an iconic figure in sport shooting?

Yusuf Dikeç has participated in a number of international competitions and has won not only medals, but also respect and admiration. The reasons behind him being an iconic figure are his impressive and consistent performance which are the results of his dedication and skills.

3. Describe two factors that contribute to Dikey's second or third-place finishes being more celebrated than some first place wins.

Firstly, his humility and sportsmanship at his victory and defeat respectively have set the standards for others to follow and have made him a beloved figure.

Secondly, his performances have been marked by extraordinary skill and determination. His comeback during the competitions and display of perseverance have captured the hearts of many.

4. How does the media influence the public perception of Dikey's achievements?

Media has played a significant role in highlighting Dikey's achievements.

It is only through the media that the world has gotten to know about his journey, the challenges he faced, and the dedication he has which have overshadowed the narrative of those who stood on the top.

5. Why does Yusuf Dike's career teach us about the true nature of success in sport?

Yusuf Dike's career teaches us that success in sport is not measured by the top positions or medals, but by the respect and admiration earned.

And it is not the top positions or the titles which leave a lasting impact, but the journey and person behind that success. It also adds to the fact that second place can sometimes be more memorable than the first one, if the person behind that success has shown impressive and consistent performance.

Sport is not about the medals or wins but about the impression and the impact which the player or contestant leave on the mind

Misinformation: A Threat to Democracy

The actual threat to democracy is not less voter turnout but the misinformation, as democratic integrity lies in authentic information. False information, through both conventional means and digitally-altered media, can harm unity and damage trust in elections. Agents against democracy can also directly attack the electoral processes. Effective mechanism against misleading information includes educational interventions and evidence-based campaigns. Scholars must address the seriousness of problem, classify false information, ensure interventions respect democratic values and free speech.
