QNO 1

Ans:- The Italian car manufacturer and founder of famous Ferrari sports car quoted that "No one remembers who took second place". The main idea behind it is just focus on winning and be on the top no matter what. But Yusuf Dikec's story challenged this winning nature and proved that unbeatable nature, consistency, hardwork, people support and admiration, respect matter the most. He proved that journey and the person behind it is more important than winning titles.

2)

Ans:- Yusuf Dikec, a Turkish sport shooter, has become an iconic figure because of his consistent hardworking skills and dedication which overshadowed the other ranks. He performed in multiple competitions, won the medals but despite of his near-wins winning those medals, he is admired by his fans and peers.

Ans:- The first reason was Dikec's sportsmanship and humility become the reason why people loved him more despite of being of second or third position. He has vision and ability to accept the victory as well as defeat with the grace made him more prominent figure in competitions. Secondly, during the world championship, Dikey's second position is being more celebrated than first one because of his incredible comebacks during the competition made him more famous.

Ans

For highlighting the Dikey's achievement, media and public played crucial role.

Those who were actually winners, their efforts and achievements being overshadowed by the hardwork, consistency, challenges, success stories and dedication of Dikey.

6

Ans:-

There are a lot of teachings and lessons which we can follow by seeing the Yusuf Dikey's career.

He taught us the new nature of success by being more consistent, show dedication, accept defeat as well as success gracefully, always try to become better person and overcome the flaws which can become the hurdle in our success and true spirit and, humility and truthfulness to one's self is required for success.
