The Essay

Mass media refers to the various ways for communication and information. These include the internet, telecommunication, television-broadcasting etc. In today's modern world, mass media has become an essential part of our daily lives. From a means of entertainment and information to being the platform for large businesses, mass media has become a dependency for us. However, like most things, mass media does bring with it some disadvantages as well. Pakistan is a country that has been developed upon certain cultural and religious values. Hence, the ~~globalization~~ wide use and reliance on mass media has introduced various evils into our societies. These evils have been inculcated in our societies via adoption of western culture in entertainment industry, developing fascination of individuals towards drug use, promoting violence and crime, negative influence of social media on youth, and making financial deception easy for scammers. To truly benefit from mass-media, these evils will have to be eliminated before they cause irreversible damage to our society.
