Misinformation: A threat to Democracy

Democratic integrity is in danger during this elections year. Threat of spreading altered information is significant which not only results in creating political divisions but also creates mistrust on electoral processes. Importantly, there are apprehensions of negative influence on voters by using conventional and contemporary means. Besides spreading false information, some anti-democratic agents also attack the on-going electoral process by using fake websites. These issues can be addressed by securing the false information and by giving society that it will not hurt the freedom of expression.

(Ans 1)
 The main idea of the Enzo Ferrari focuses on the importance of winning the first position in the competition. He said that people remember only those who get first position. This idea is challenged by the story of Yusuf Dikee, a Turkish sport shooter. He has been remembered mainly because of the consistency in winning the games and not because of his first position in the competition.

(Ans 2)
 Yusuf Dikee, a Turkish sport shooter, became an iconic figure because of his consistent performances that have overshadowed those who finished ahead of him. He started his career at young age and quickly rose through the ranks, gaining recognition for his determination and skill. By participating in different competitions he not only earned medals but also a lot of respect.

(Ans 3)
 The two factors that contribute to the Dikee's second or third place finishes being more celebrated than some first place wins are his humility and his extraordinary skill. Dikee's humility to handle both victory and defeat with grace make him a beloved figure. And his performances are marked by exceptional skill and determination thus gaining a reputation.

(Ans. 4)

02 Media influences public perception of Dikee's achievements by highlighting the stories of his journey, challenges and dedication to the sport. His journey, full of consistent hard work and perseverance sometimes hides the performance of those who stand first in the competition. Therefore, it is the journey and the person behind it that leaves the long lasting impact, not a title.

(Ans 5)

01 Yusuf Dikee's career teaches us about the true nature of success in sports that the greatness lies in the respect and admiration earned along the journey not in the gaining of victory. Therefore, Dikee's story is witness of the fact that second place can sometimes be more memorable than the first place.
